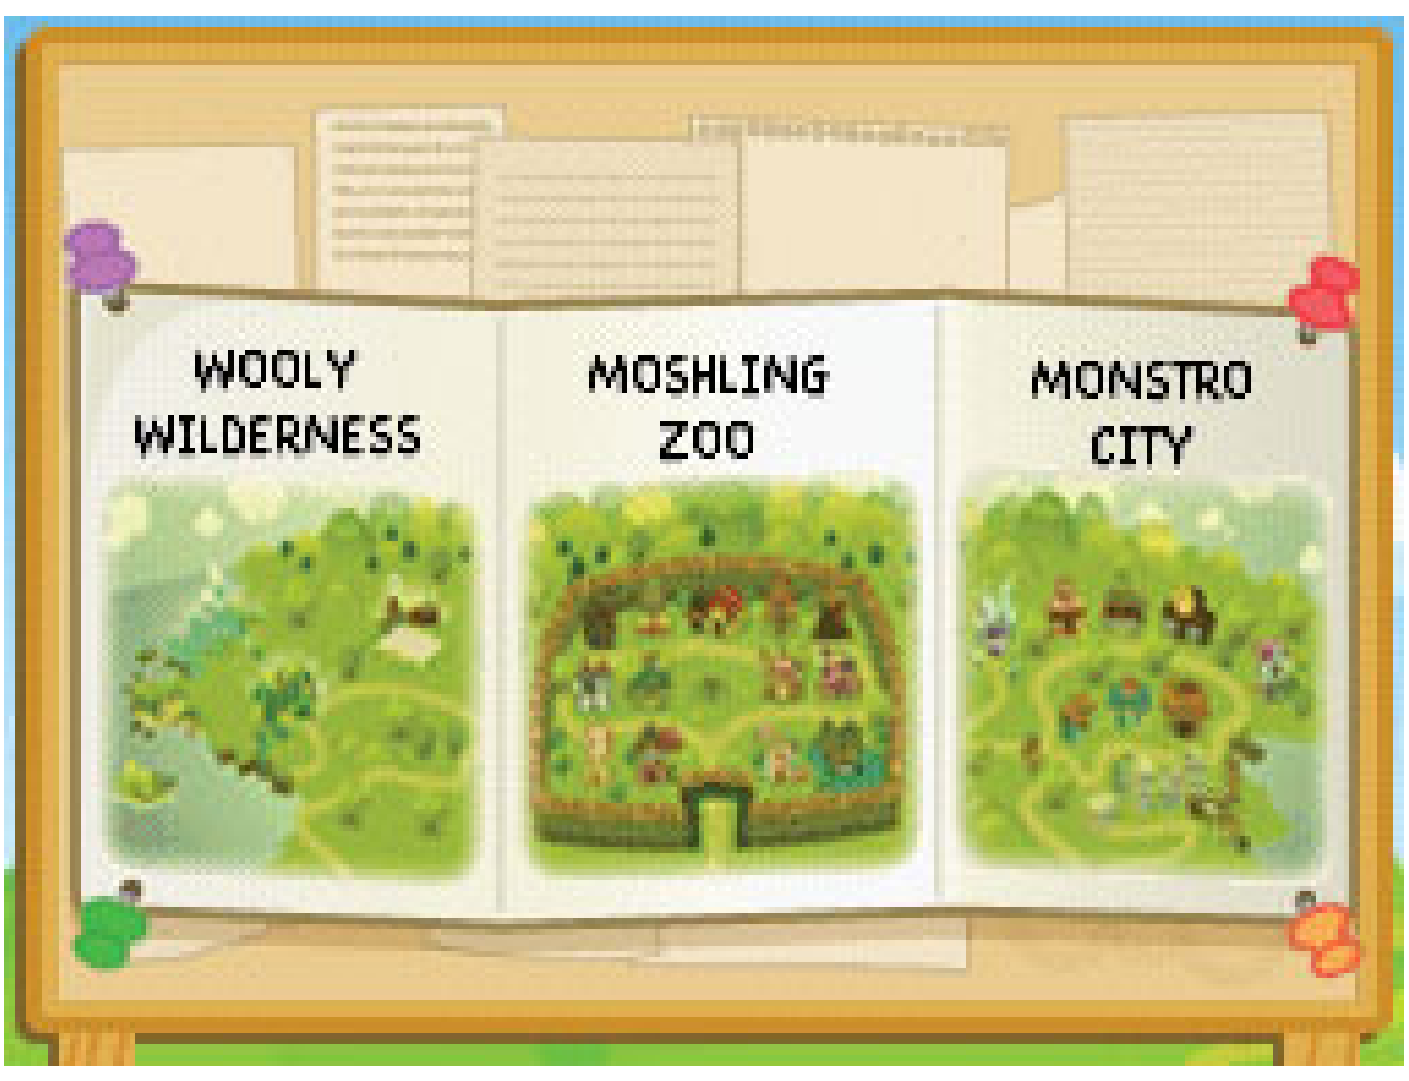
About Moshlings

Welcome to the Zoo

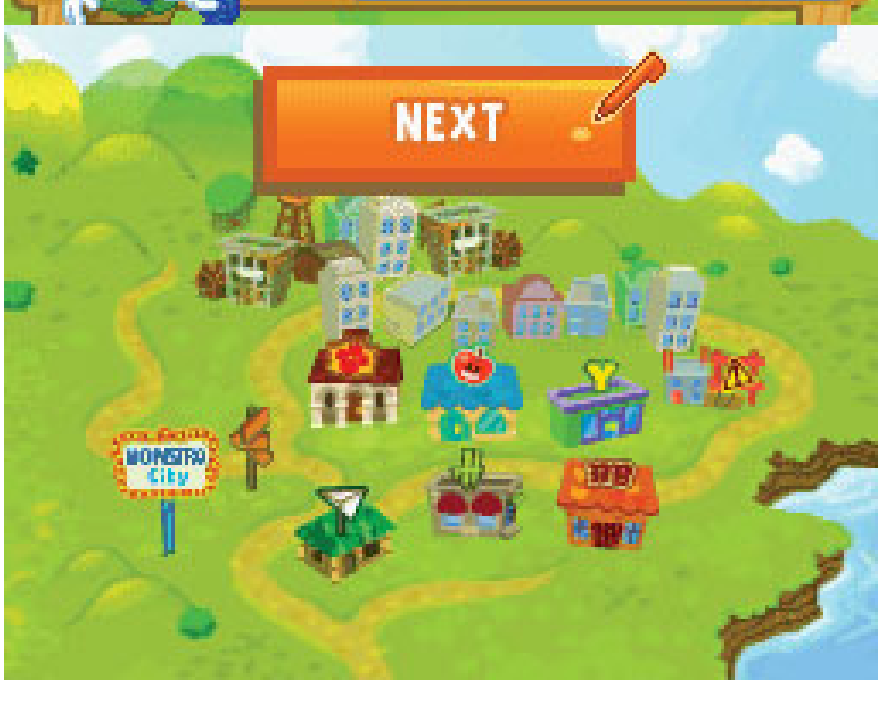
Buster Bumblechops, expert Moshling collector, at your service! Whether you find yourself lost in the Wooly Wilderness or in that massive home decorating store Yukea, I'm here to help you find what you need to keep collecting those Moshlings!



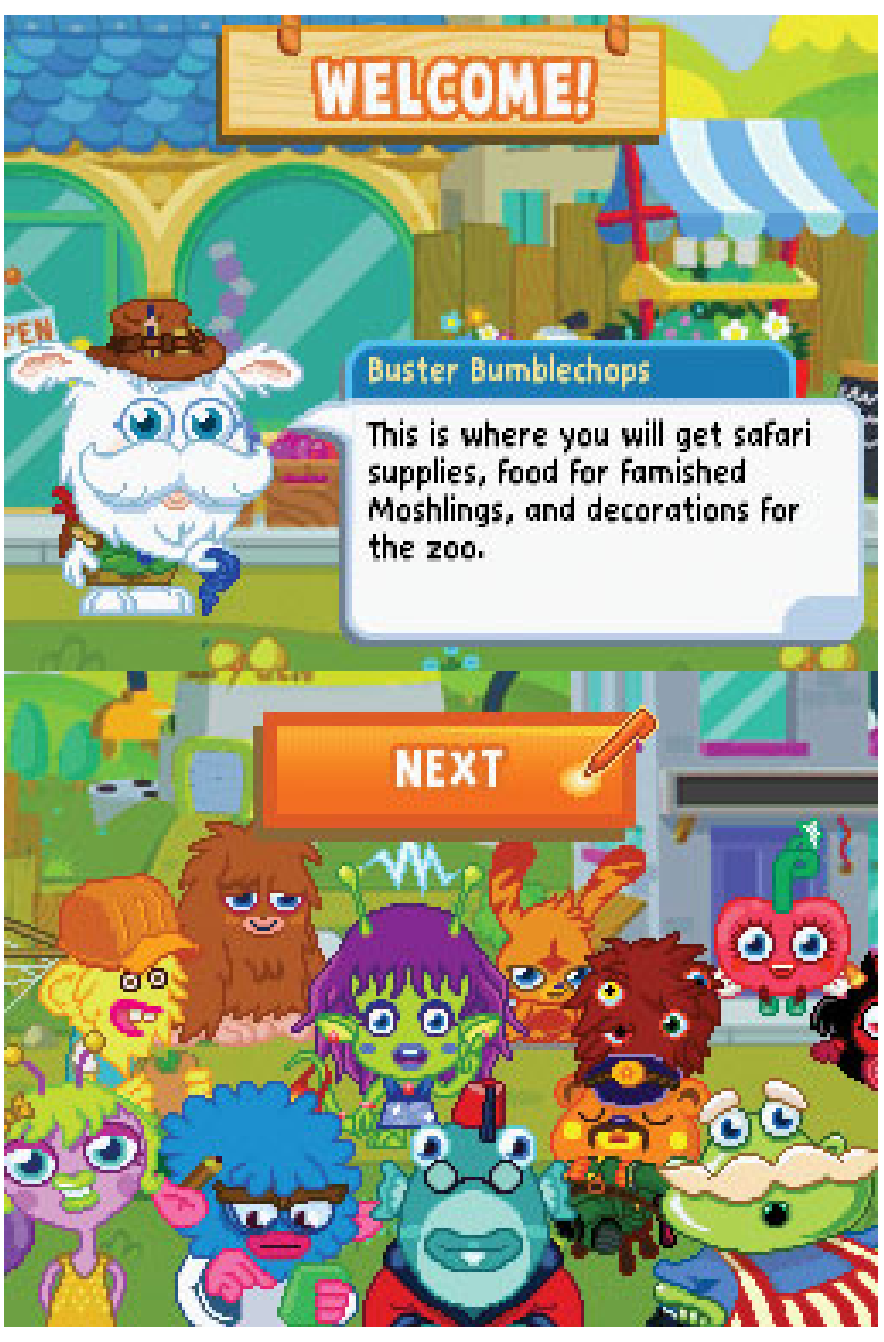
I'm so pleased to join you on a new Moshling collecting expedition. We've got a ginormous zoo just waiting to be filled with those adorable, elusive little Moshlings, who aren't usually inclined to come out of hiding on their own.

You'll need to coax them out and convince them to be adopted into your zoo!

WELCOME!
Buster Bumblechops
This is the Map. It's how you get from one part of the world to another. You can visit Monstro City and all the shops...



Monstro City's shops have every supply you'll need for your adventures in the Wooly Wilderness and the zoo.



WELCOME!
Buster Bumblechops
This is where you will get safari supplies, food for famished Moshlings, and decorations for the zoo.
NEXT

The shopkeepers are ready to help you stock up on Moshling must-haves.

How do you do that? Well, even my natural charms and spiffy hat aren't enough. You must give them what they love most: disgusting delicacies, special items, and the most stylin' zoo rooms imaginable.

And then you must keep them happy and healthy once they're in your zoo! Those Moshlings are not easy to please, but as every Moshling collector knows, they are worth the effort (most of the time). I'm still a little mad at Burnie for singeing my eyebrows off.

I can tell you'll be a top-notch Moshling hunter and zookeeper. And probably a stylish decorator, too. The Moshlings are going to love you. Let's get ready for the adventure!

What are Moshlings?

If you're a first-time Moshling collector, welcome to our elite group of Moshlingologist! Let's begin at the be-ginning: Moshlings are the Moshi Monsters' pets. They run wild (and mostly hide) in the various Wooly Wil-derness areas.

Your job as zookeeper is to get all 52 Moshlings to join your zoo, which is where they'll live after they agree to be adopted. You will also need to find all 52 Moshling eggs, which will hatch in your zoo so you'll have brand-new Moshling babies.

The zoo is where your adopted Moshlings will live. Visit your zoo residents often to keep them happy and well trained! Read on to find out more details about what to do when you visit your zoo.

The bustling Monstro City is next to the zoo. Monstro City is where you'll buy essential Moshling-finding items with Rox you collect. (More on Rox later.)

In Monstro City you'll find safari supplies, Moshling food, and zoo upgrades and decorations. In case you're wondering, I wouldn't recommend eating Moshling food.

I tried some toffee toothpaste while I was out in the field once, and I couldn't get my teeth unstuck for a week.

About Moshlings

How to adopt Moshlings

Colonel Catcher, owner of Monstro City's Safari Pro Outfitterz, will be along on your journey to help you find any Moshlings nearby, items to attract them, and lots of encouragement if you get stuck.

Of course, this guide will help you get unstuck from any situation! (Unless you try the toffee tooth-paste.)

Colonel Catcher, your Moshling-catching guru

The Colonel will give you tips as you explore the Wooly Wilderness areas on how to attract and catch each Moshling. He'll remind you to grab items and tell you how to use them.

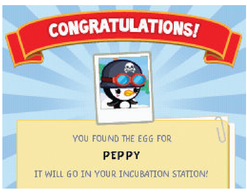
To get an item, click on it and it's automatically added to your backpack. To use an item, drag it to the Moshling or object you want to give it to. It's easy as eyepie.

Success!

Egg finding means waiting for egg hatching.

Remember to keep a lookout for colorful Moshling eggs, too. Each Moshling species has an adult and baby to collect for the zoo. Moshling eggs hide in the Wooly Wilderness in wacky places—high in trees, low on the ground, and behind shrubbery.

They can be hard to find, so keep checking back into each area until they all appear eventually.



Which comes first, the adult Moshling or the egg? As in philosophy, in the Wooly Wilderness, it's hard to say. Sometimes you'll find the grown-up Moshling first, and sometimes you can find the egg before the adult.

After you find an egg, it automatically goes to your zoo's nursery. You can visit it from time to time, and when it's ready, it will hatch! Baby Moshling! Awwww.

If you're not having any luck with tracking down Moshlings or eggs, exit the area and go back to it again. Moshlings and their eggs will pop up randomly in each area of the Wooly Wilderness.

Tip

My most imperative, vital, essential tip (it's important): Make sure that your zoo is ready for your desired Moshling, or it won't ever show up, no matter how many yummy treats or special items you've bought to tempt it out of hiding.

You must have the Moshling type's room open and upgraded in your zoo, which means spending some Rox in Bjorn's Konstruction on all the houses and upgrades before you can find all the Moshlings. Home decorating is critical to Moshlings. Hey, they have good taste—after all, they chose you to be their zookeeper!

If you're sure you've got all your zoo's rooms open and upgraded, but are still having trouble tracking down Moshlings, here are some more adoption tips:

- Upgrade and use your Mosh-Ray hint tool on left side of the screen. Depending on which level you have upgraded it to, it can help you find items you need in the environment, or even flush especially shy Moshlings out of hiding! Hit up the Colonel's Safari Pro Outfitterz shop to max out your Mosh-Ray.
- If you find a Moshling but it doesn't want to be adopted, listen to Colonel Catcher's words of wisdom. He knows what he's talking about - after all, catcher is his last name!
- You can buy hints at Paws 'n' Claws for what each Moshling needs to be adopted - or you can keep your Rox and turn to the ever-so-useful Monstropedia section in this guide! It shows you all the hints for every Moshling, so you can save your Rox for more upgrades and items.
- After you've adopted Moshlings, visit your zoo often to spend quality time with your critters. Play games with them - you'll help to train them and earn Rox!

How to take care of Moshlings

So how do you bond with your Moshlings and keep them happy? Go to your zoo, find a room, and tap a Moshling to check its status (you can see if it's hungry, dirty, or low on training), and then play some mini-games with it.

Mini-games are the fastest way to earn Rox (way faster than by finding Rox in the Wooly Wilderness, although you should collect those, too).

Refer to the mini-games section of this walkthrough for more details on these Rox-earning, happy-making games! After you've trained your Moshlings to higher levels, play the Ulti-Moshling Contest to win trophies!

Note

Baby Moshlings can't play the same kinds of games the grown-ups can play, but you can still take care of them and bond with them: Click on a baby Moshling in one of your zoo rooms to play a mellow mini-game.

You give the babies what they need, whether it's a bottle or a teddy bear, and get to enjoy their contented little monstrous love. You don't get many Rox for these games, but you do get to max out your own personal cuteness meter.

Moshling Contests and Trophies

Moshling mini-game playing means that your Moshling is getting trained better and better to compete in the most prestigious event around: the Ulti-Moshling Contest!

One Moshling at a time competes with other Moshlings (chosen automatically). Your Moshling plays in three games that are very similar to the mini-games you've been practicing. Ulti-Moshling Contest games involve speed, mind, and culinary skills.

Although Moshlings can compete hungry and dirty (well, technically, they can...but poor Moshlings!), you must train them in the race and intellect mini-games so they can win here.

The ultimate in the Ulti-Moshling Contest: win a gold trophy for every Moshling! You can admire your trophies on display in the Visitors' Center.

Bjorn's Konstruction

Shopkeeper: Bjorn, of course

Bjorn's sales pitch might be only a few words (okay, so they're all the same words), but don't let that fool you: you need Bjorn and his habitat upgrades. Moshlings can be very persnickety about their homes.

You want your zoo habitats to be the biggest and best they can be, so do lots of remodeling and buy every habitat upgrade as soon as you can. You can't attract all the Moshlings without having your habitats upgraded to the max.

You'll be seeing a lot of this shop and its pink-eared shopkeeper because it's got specialty items to attract and appease particularly picky Moshlings.

But don't spend all your Rox in one place: remember that many items sold here can be found in the wild area your desired Moshling inhabits, so you don't need to buy everything here (but don't tell Bushy I said that).

For the more sensitive Moshlings, you can even find extra soft tissues for monstrously tender noses.

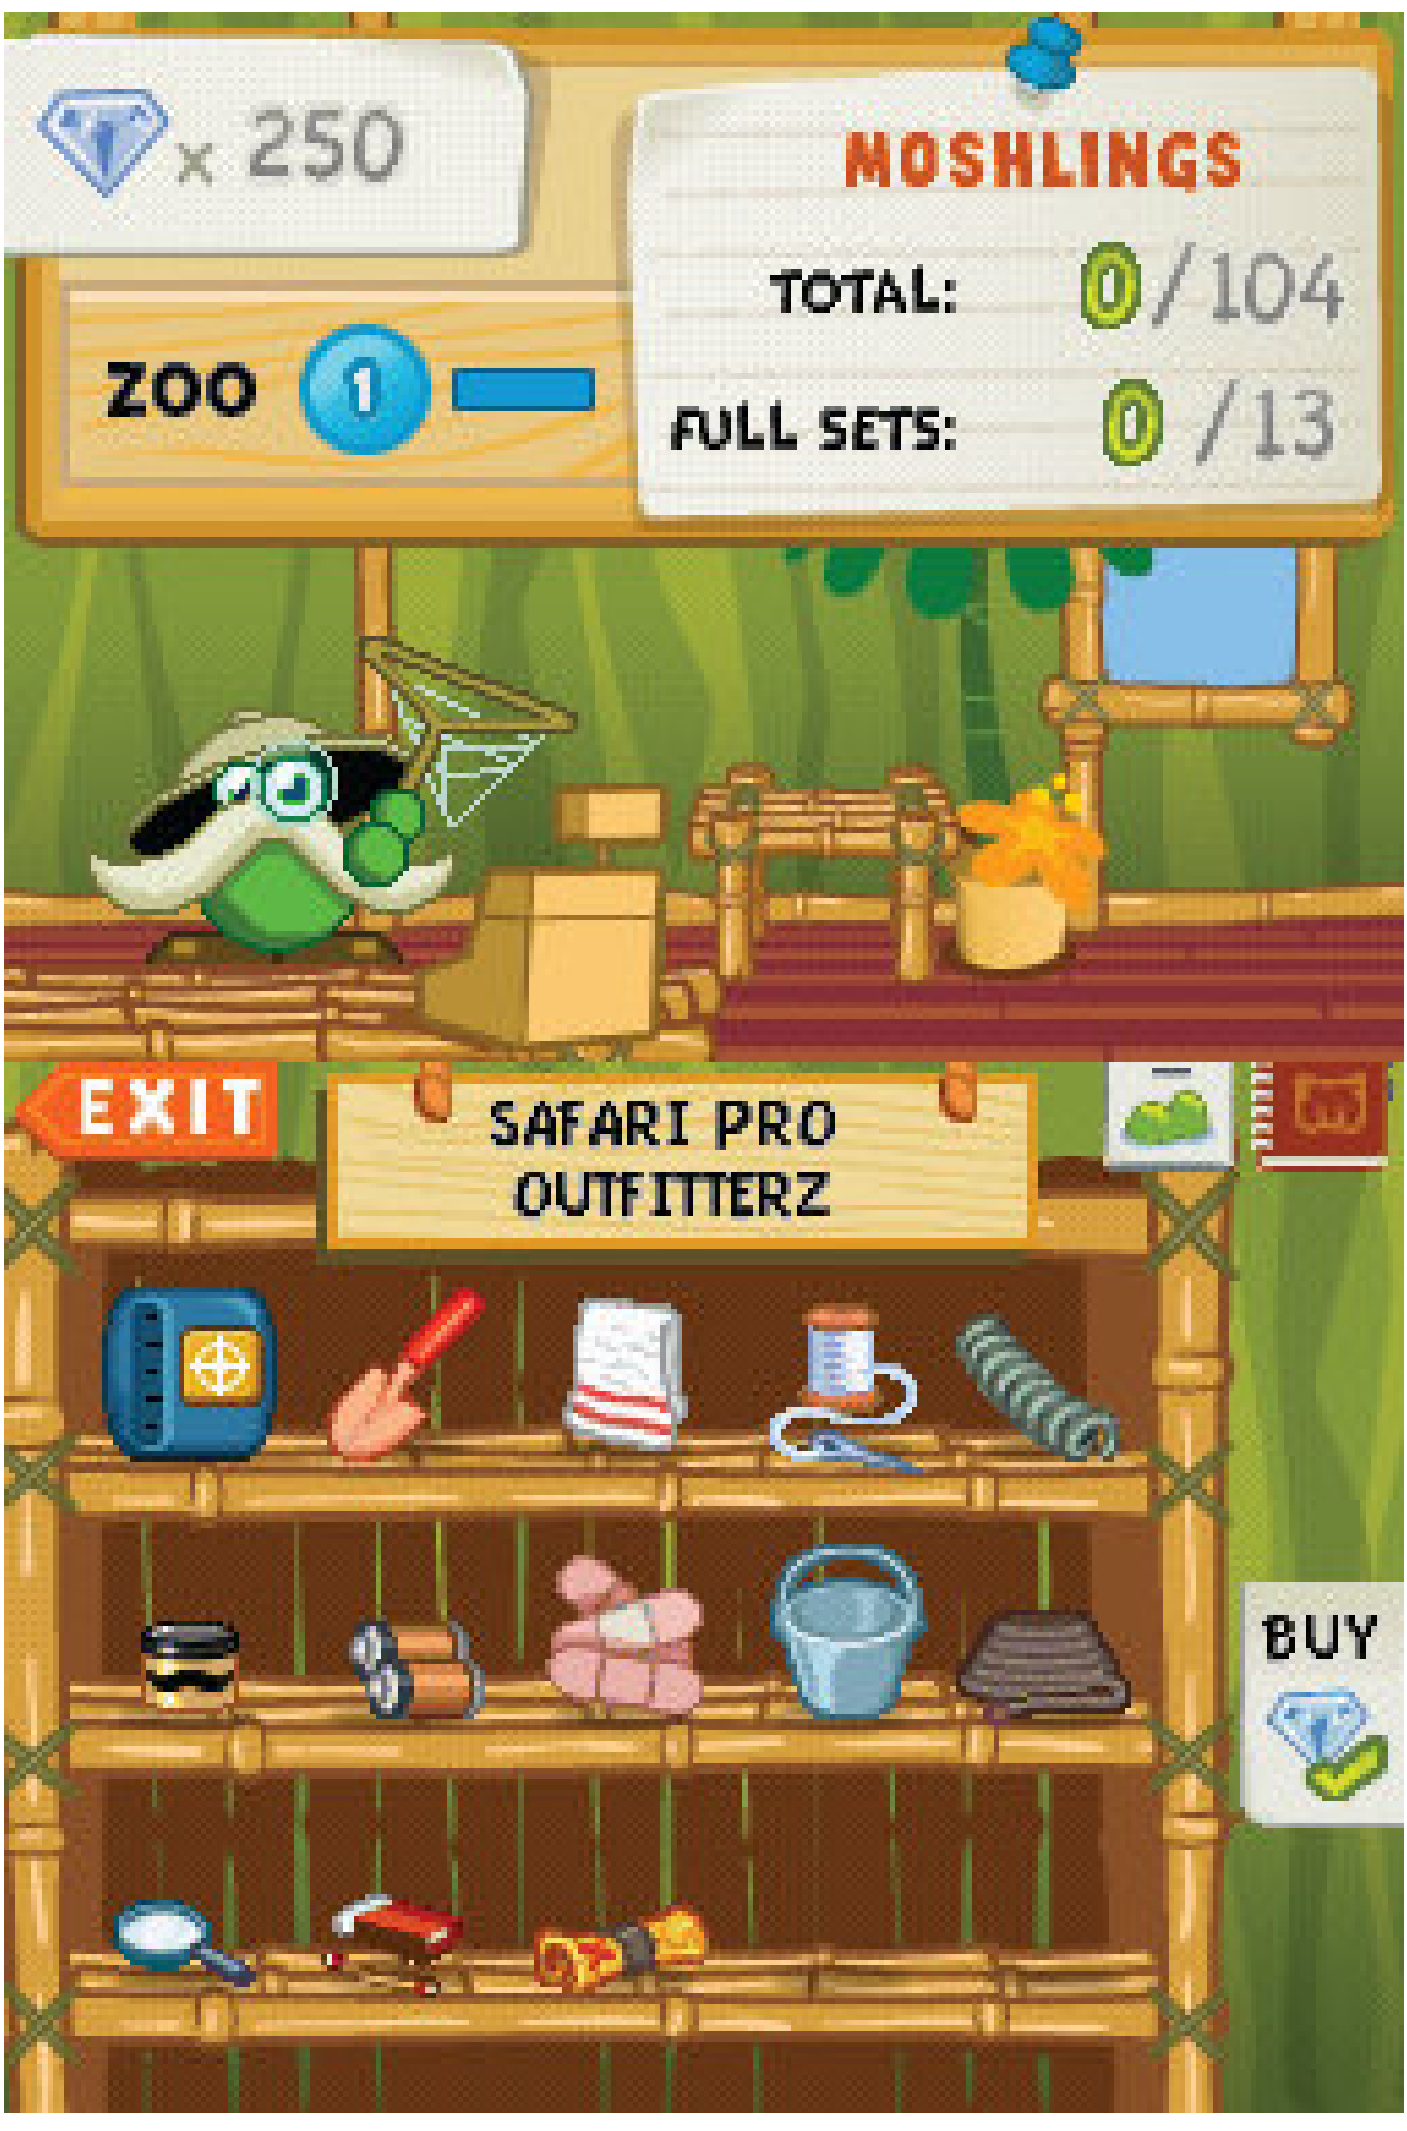
Safari Pro Outfitterz



Shopkeeper: Colonel Catcher

You can find many of the Colonel's items hiding in the Wooly Wilderness, but you should still visit the Colonel (and not just to admire his impressive mustache). He's got a very special item: the Mosh-Ray upgrade, levels 2 and 3.

Upgrading your Mosh-Ray will help you discover any shy Moshlings that are lurking about. (Keep in mind that even with a maxed out Mosh-Ray, you have to have all the houses ready and upgraded before all Moshlings will come out of hiding.)

Check each area's detailed map in this guide to get a shopping list of what items you'll need to buy for that area's Moshlings.

Good luck, my marvelous Moshling collectors! Through this book, I'll be with you every step of the way.

Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

Introduction

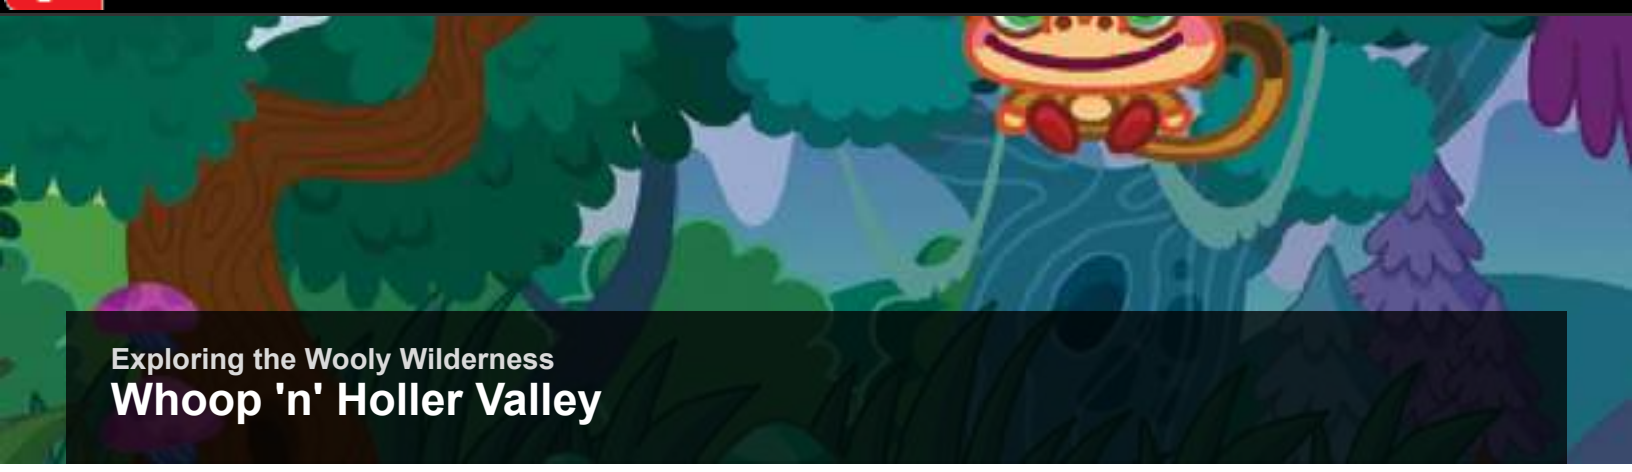
It's really a jungle out there...but it's not just a jungle. There's also an ocean, a mountain range, some canyons, a few islands, a desert, farm land, forests, and city streets. Yes, there are a lot of things out there in the Wooly Wilderness. But Buster will take care of you! Here is my guide to the Wooly Wilderness, with all the Moshlings you can find in each area. Let's get this safari started!

Tip

For all of the areas, remember to keep checking back for new Moshlings or eggs to appear as you upgrade your zoo. And sometimes it takes a while for especially shy Moshlings to come out of hiding. If at first you don't find many Moshlings or eggs, upgrade your zoo habitats as much as you can. Then try, try again. And again. And again.

Note

Turn to the Monstropedia to find info on all the Moshlings and how to adopt them.

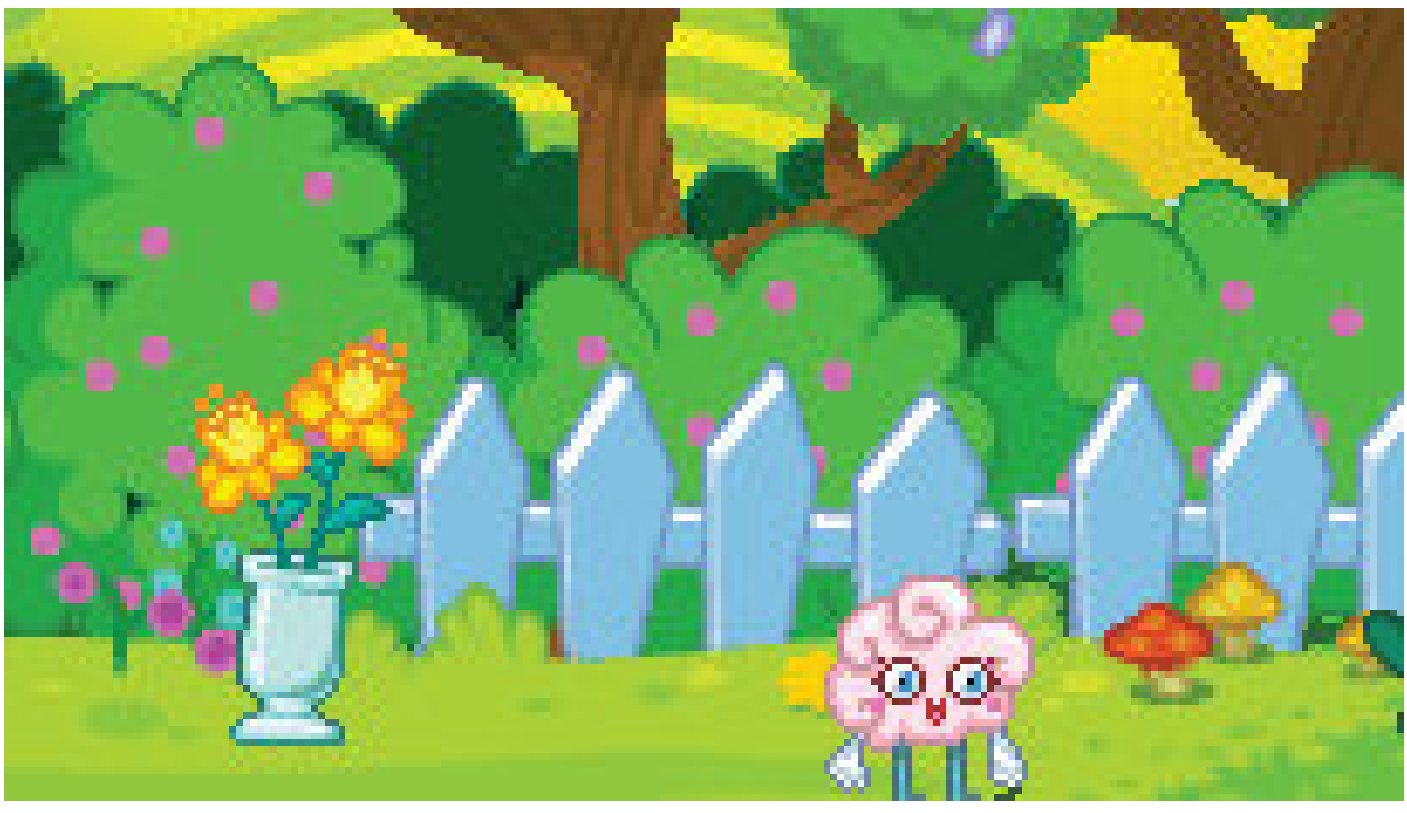


Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

Whoop 'n' Holler Valley

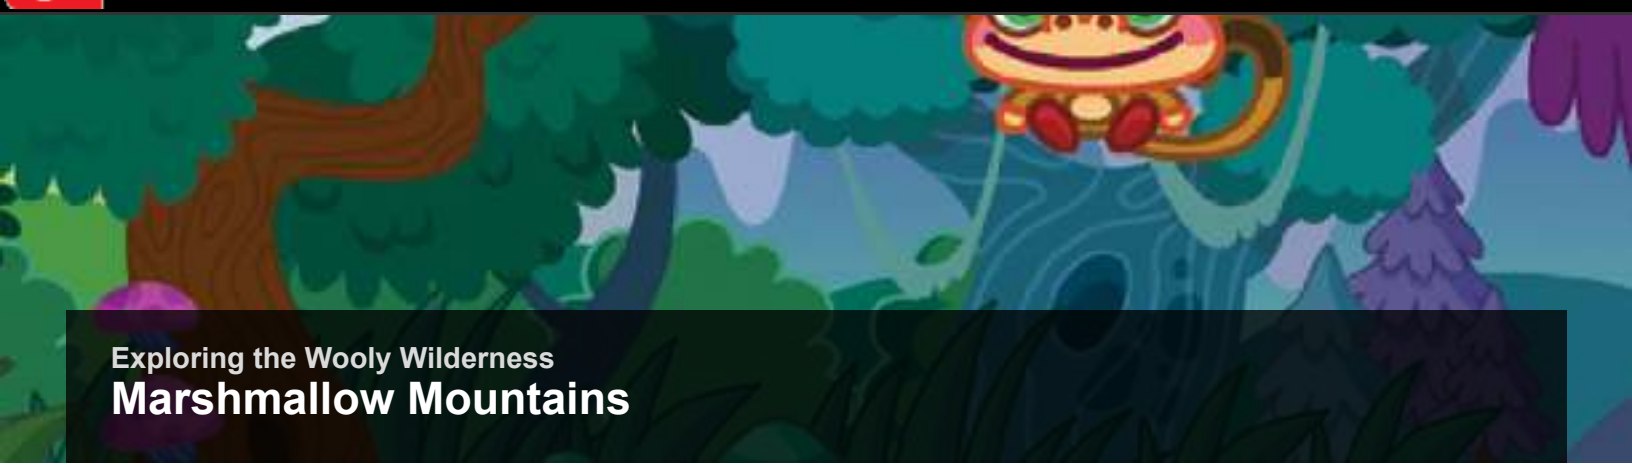
Good old Whoop ‘n’ Holler Valley is a friendly place to start your search for Moshlings. Most of the critters in these parts aren’t too shy about meeting a collector like you, so you should be able to nab a couple of Moshlings even on your first time passing through. Get along, little collector!

Who’s hiding here? Dipsy, Fifi...



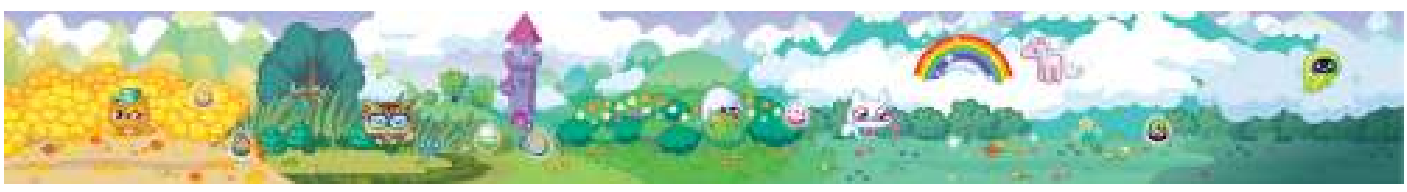
...Flumpy, Honey...

...Humphrey, and Scamp



Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

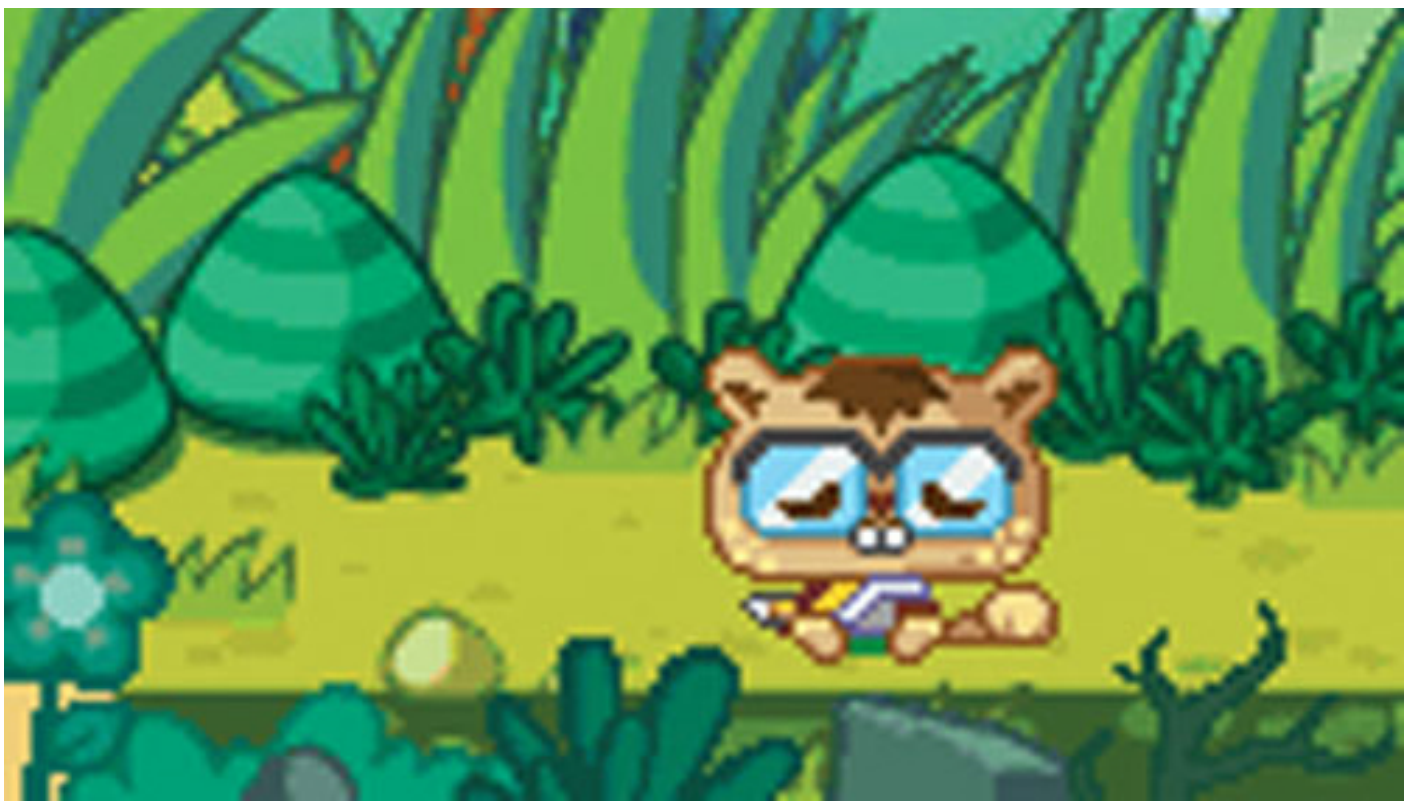
Marshmallow Mountains



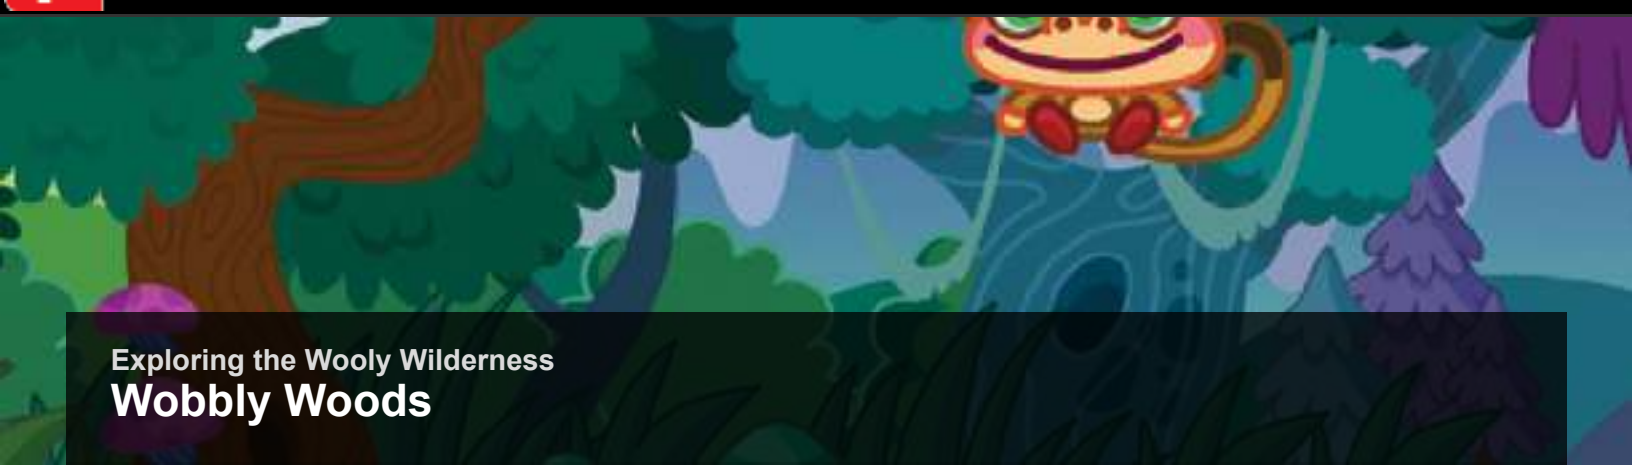
The Marshmallow Mountains in the Wooly Wilderness are certainly the most majestic marshmallow mountains you'll ever see. Don't get too distracted by their beauty, though! You're here on a mission, and there are plenty of Moshlings hiding in these hills.

Who's hiding here? Angel, Ecto...

... Gingersnap, Lady Meowford...



...Pooky, and Waldo



Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

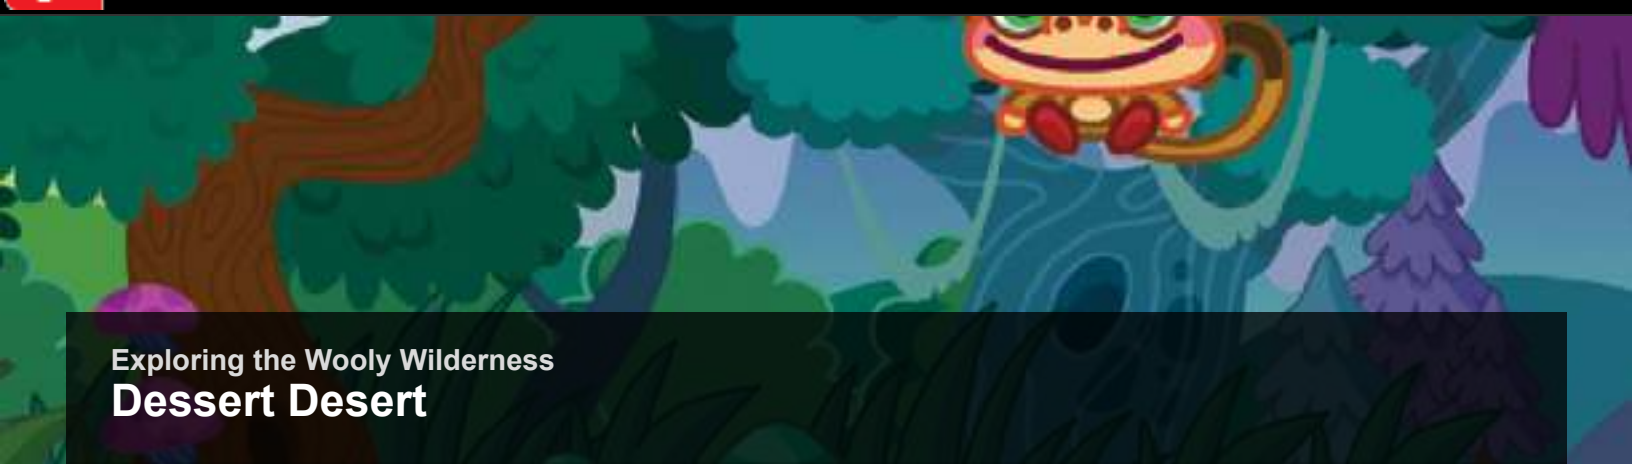
Wobbly Woods

Outside of the Wooly Wilderness, you can't find places like the Wobbly Woods, where you can watch TV right next to a lovely Moon Orchid garden. Now that seems downright civilized! Maybe I should try and do that when I get home.

Who's hiding here? Big Bad Bill...

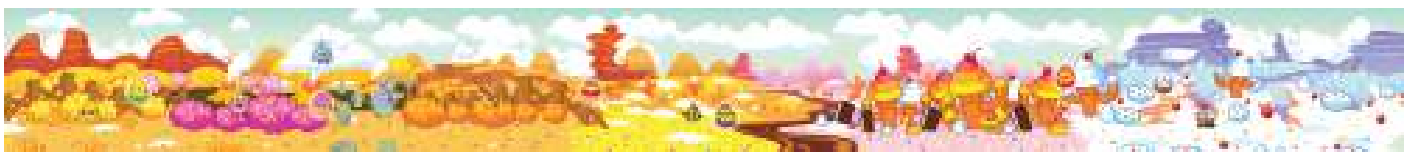
...Chop Chop, Doris, Jeepers...

... Prof. Purplex, Shishi

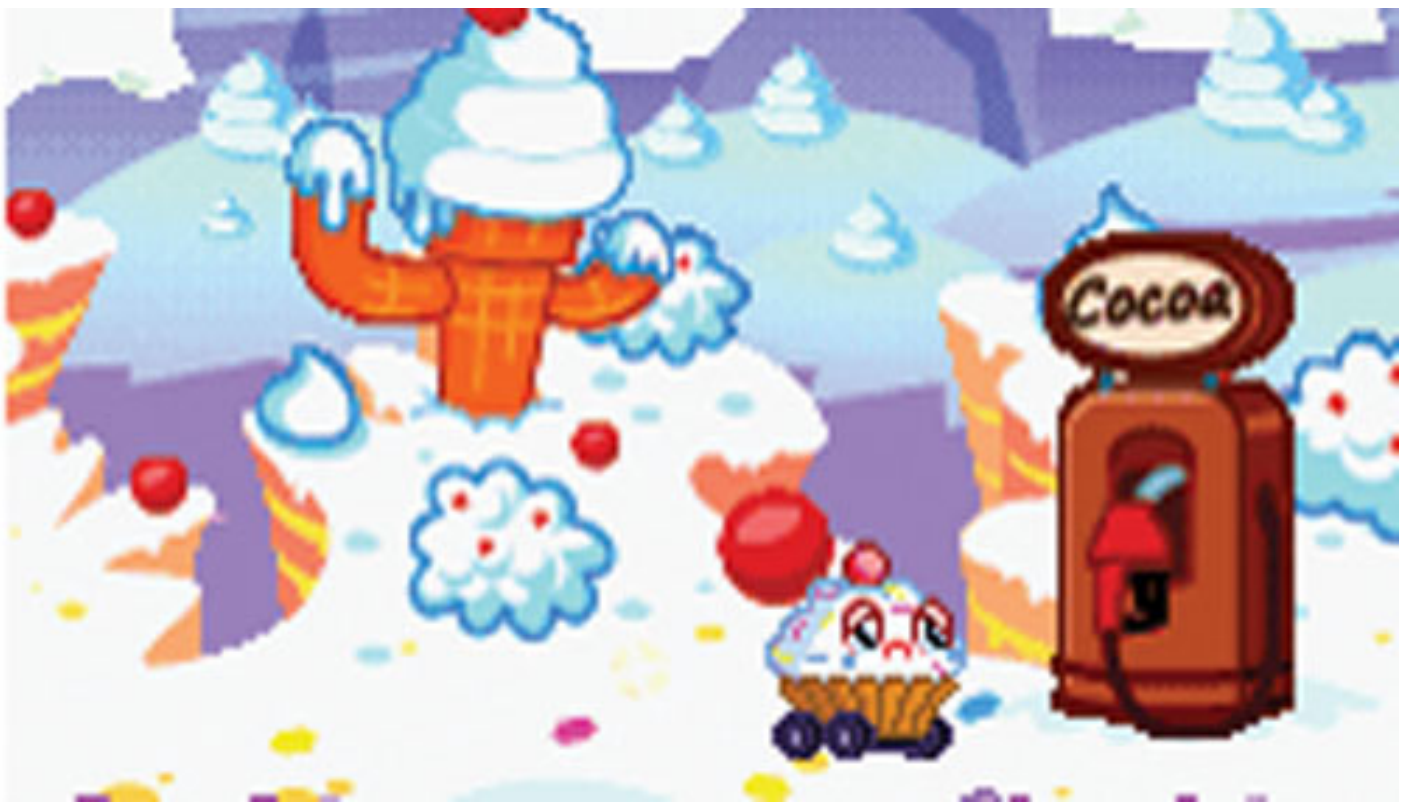


Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

Dessert Desert



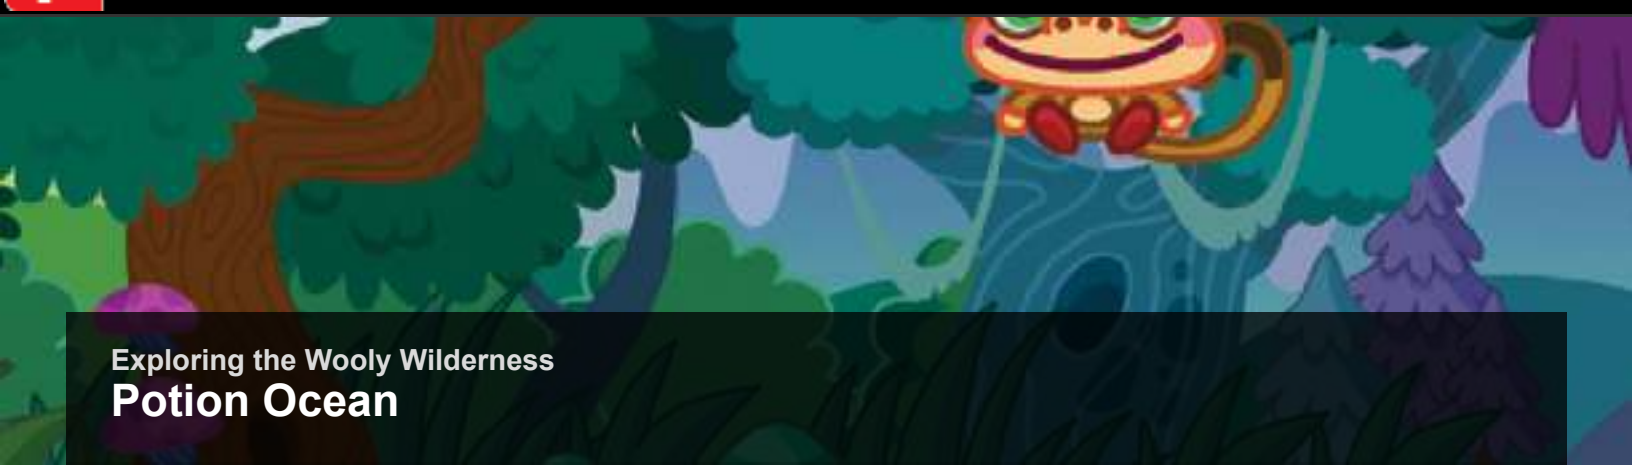
If you're going to be wandering the Wilderness, the Dessert Desert is a tasty place to do it! Everywhere you look, a Foodie or its favorite items tempt you with sugary goodness. I like to spend an afternoon chilling out by the ice cream sandwiches under Coolio's umbrella.



Who's hiding here? Cleo, Cutie Pie...

...Mr. Snoodle, Oddie...

...Priscilla and Wurley



Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

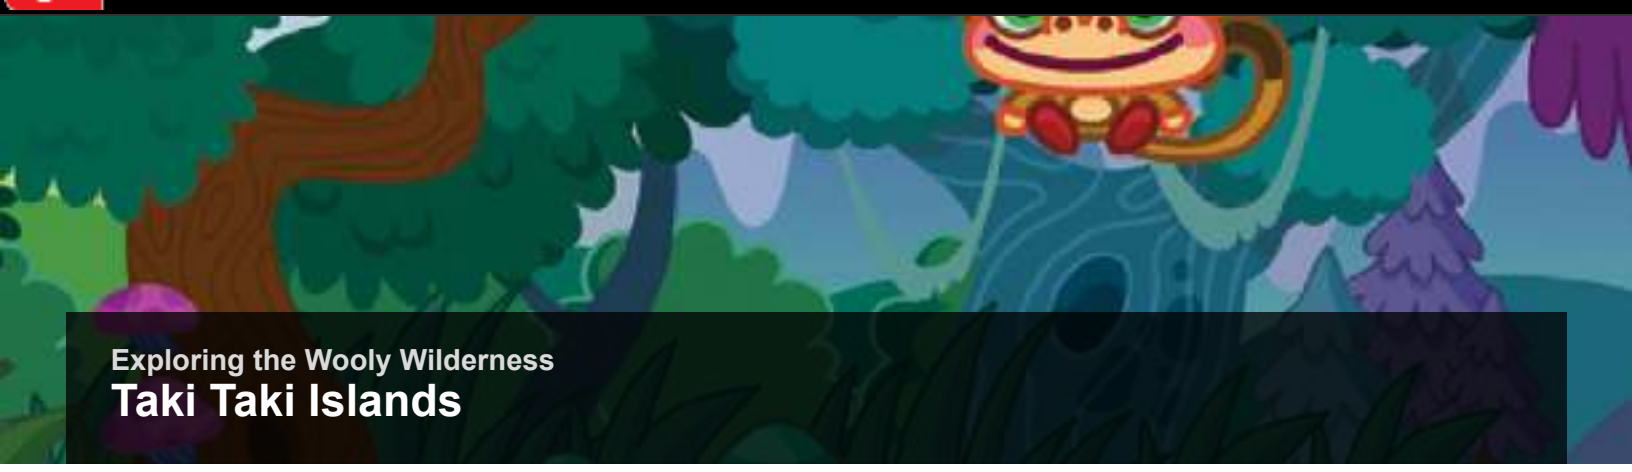
Potion Ocean

Ah, a trip to the beach. I can't wait to build sand castles and go swimming. And find lots of Fishies and some Birdies, of course. And maybe a Ninja. What fun is a beach without a Ninja?

Who's hiding here? Cali, General Fuzuki...

...Peppy, Shelby

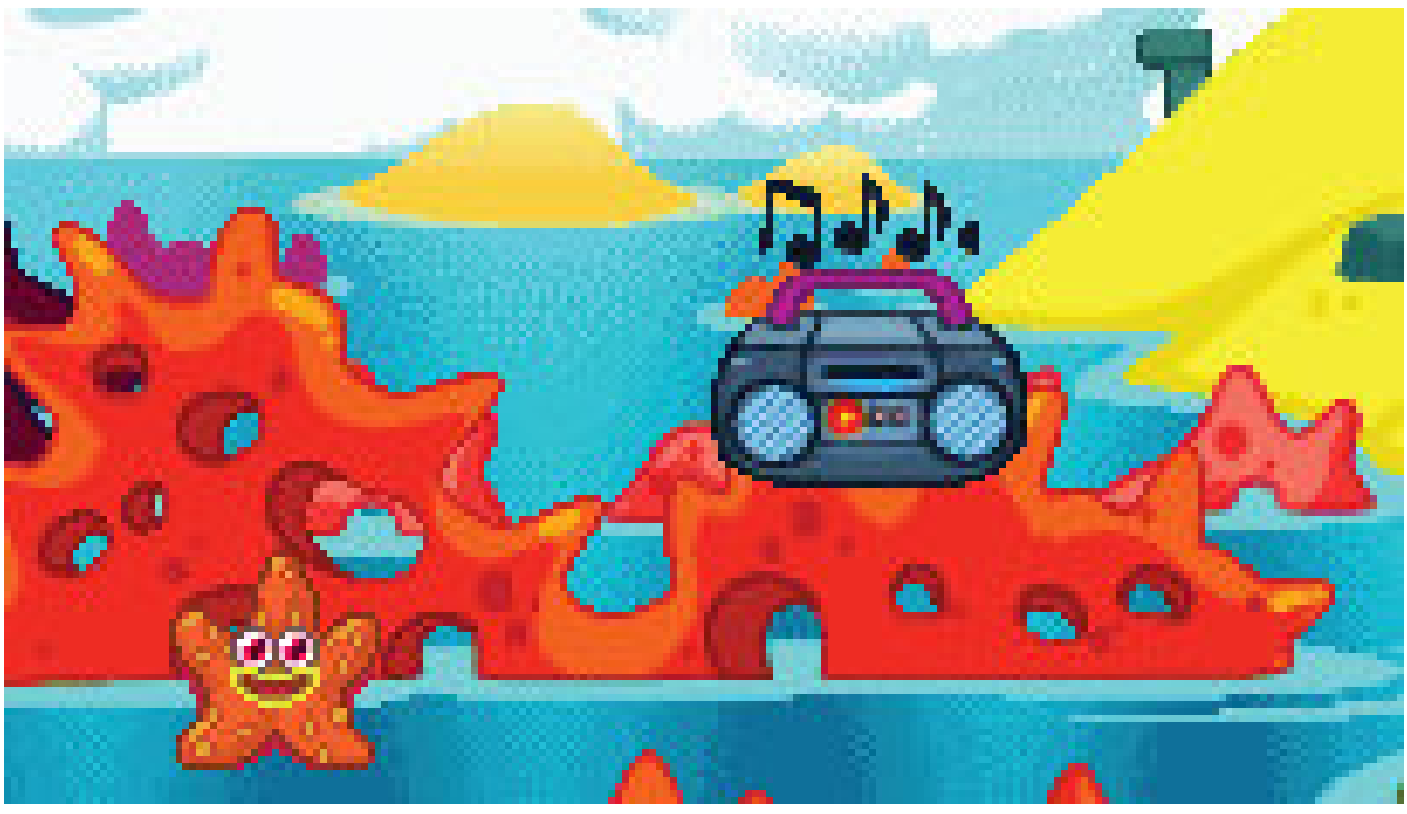
..and Stanley



Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

Taki Taki Islands

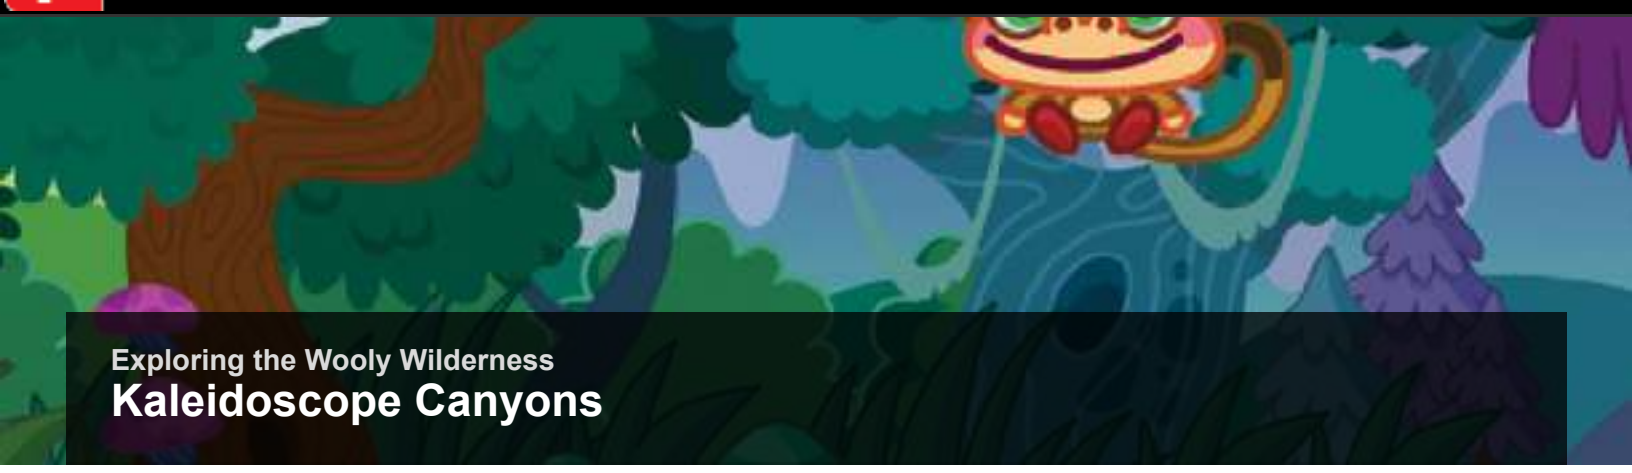
Now this is the place to go for a party! DJ Quack plays his favorite funky music, and the islands only get more interesting as you explore. You might even see a (cardboard) celebrity! The islands are a tricky place to spot eggs; those tropical fruits hanging from the trees sure do look like eggs. Keep a sharp lookout for what you want!



Who's hiding here? Blup, Burnie...

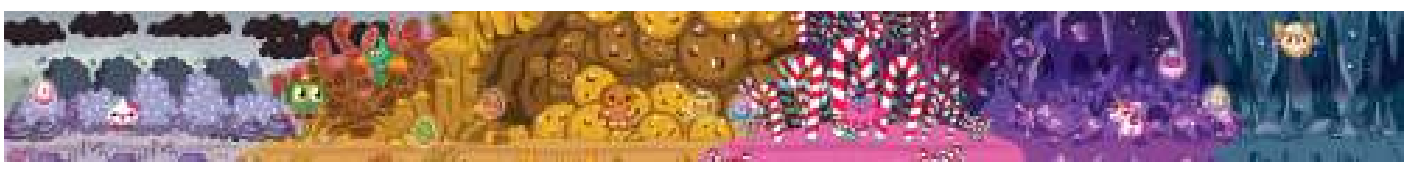
...DJ Quack, Fumble, Holga...

...Liberty and Rocky



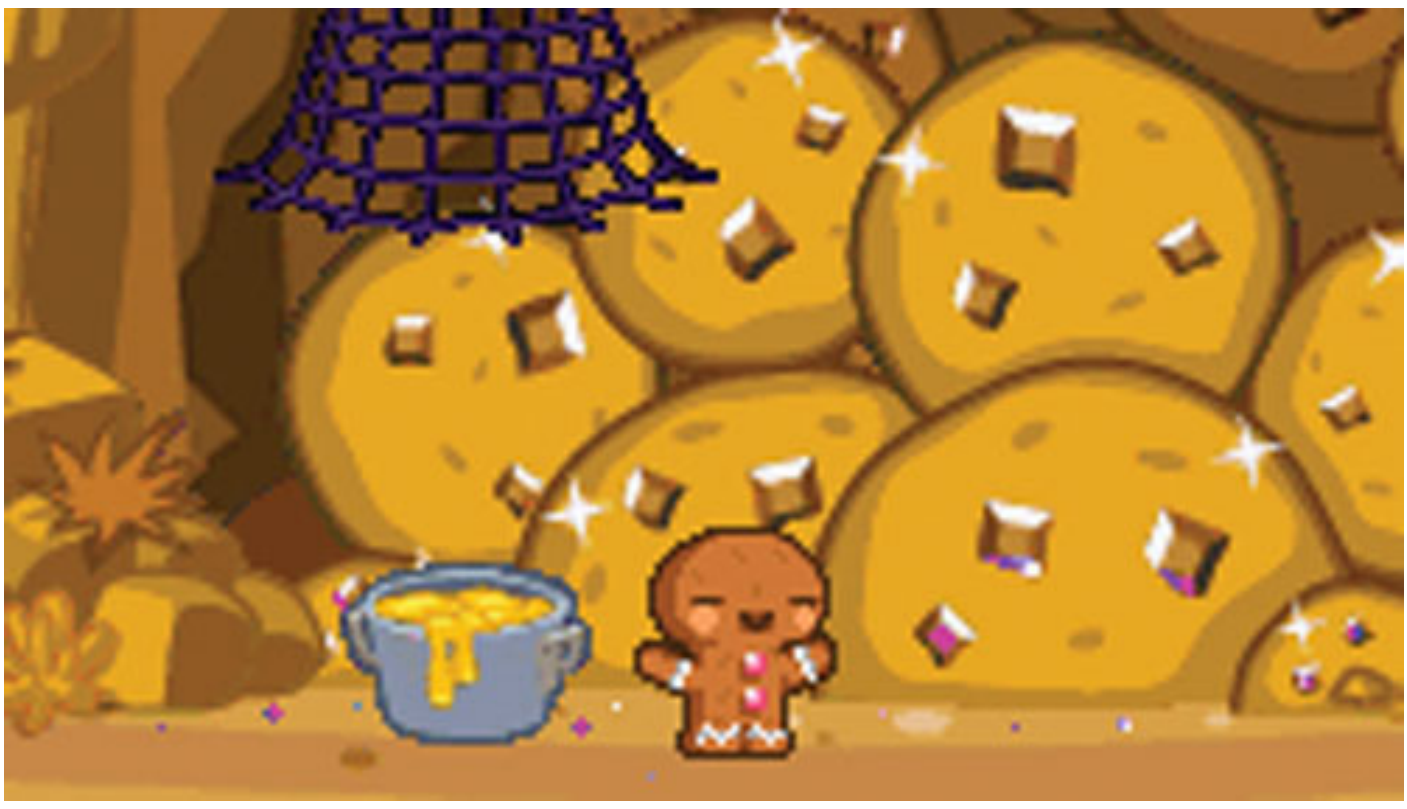
Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

Kaleidoscope Canyons



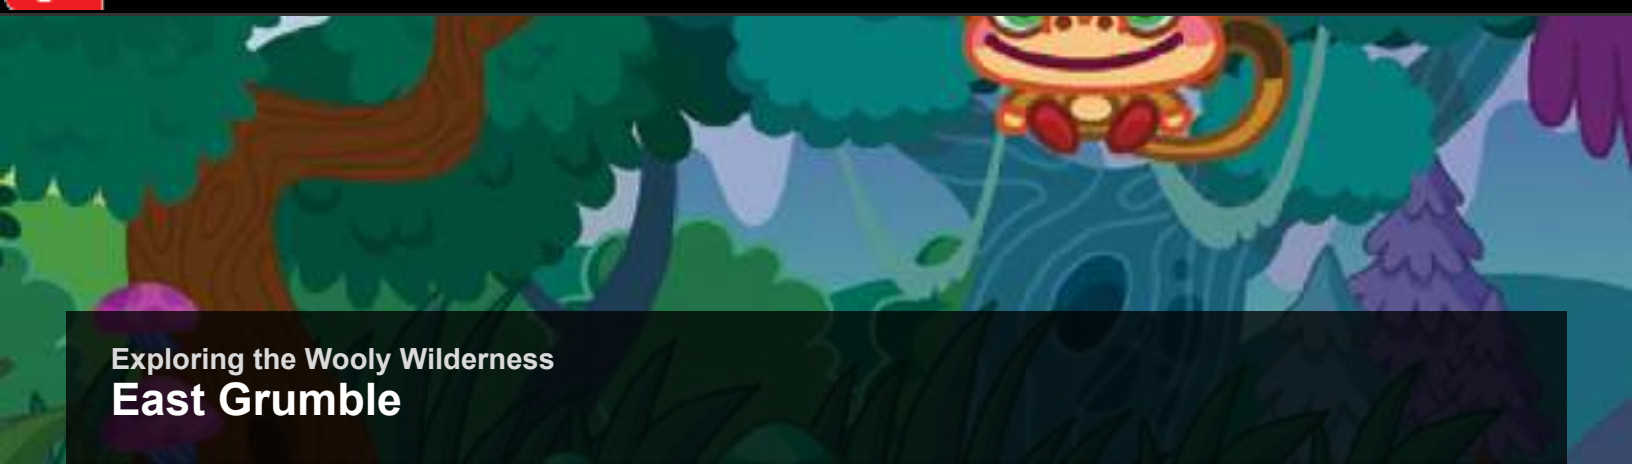
If you like your lands mysterious, creepy, dark, and also very shiny, Kaleidoscope Canyons is the place for you! Moshlings who hide here enjoy glistening gems—or are scary Spookies who like to hide out in the dark. Either way, you'll be ready to seek them out!

Who's hiding here? Gigi, Gurgle...



...Hansel, Kissy, Nipper..

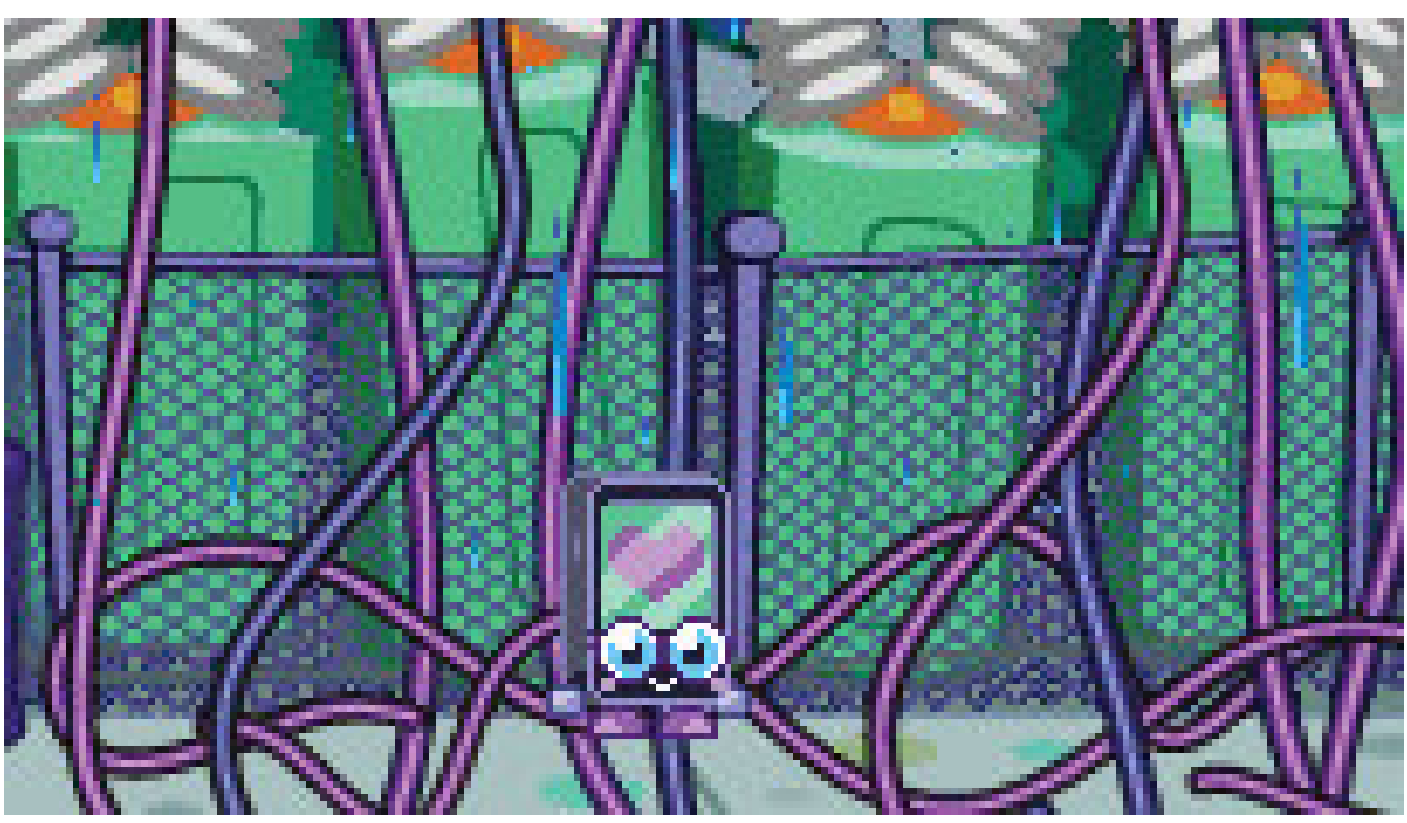
...Purdy and Squidge



Exploring the Wooly Wilderness

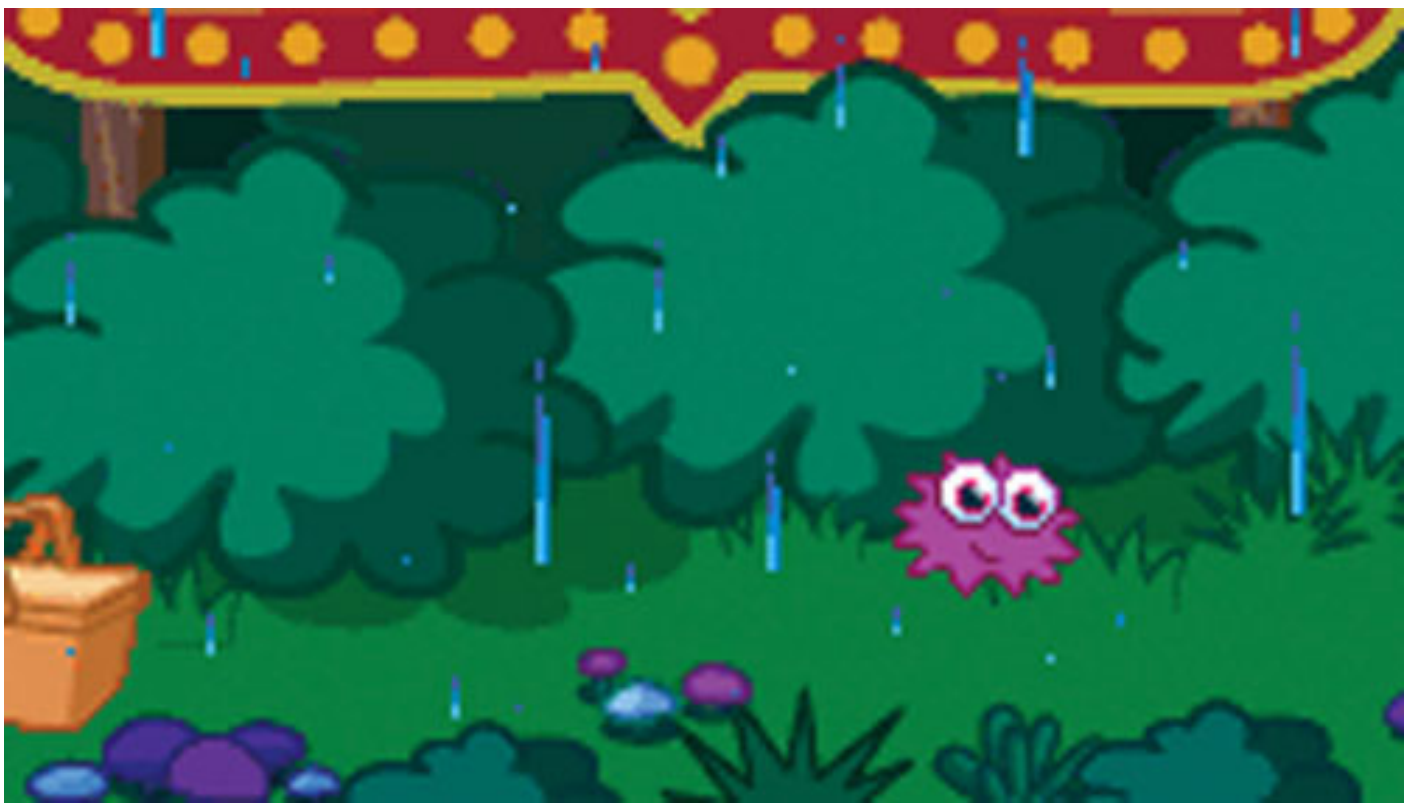
East Grumble

On the streets of East Grumble, you'll find a great mob of Moshlings frolicking in the rain. Put on your raincoat and galoshes, and get out there! It's probably just a little shower. Or a light sprinkle. Or...OK, it rains all the time here. But it's still a beautiful place to visit. There's even a sign that says so!

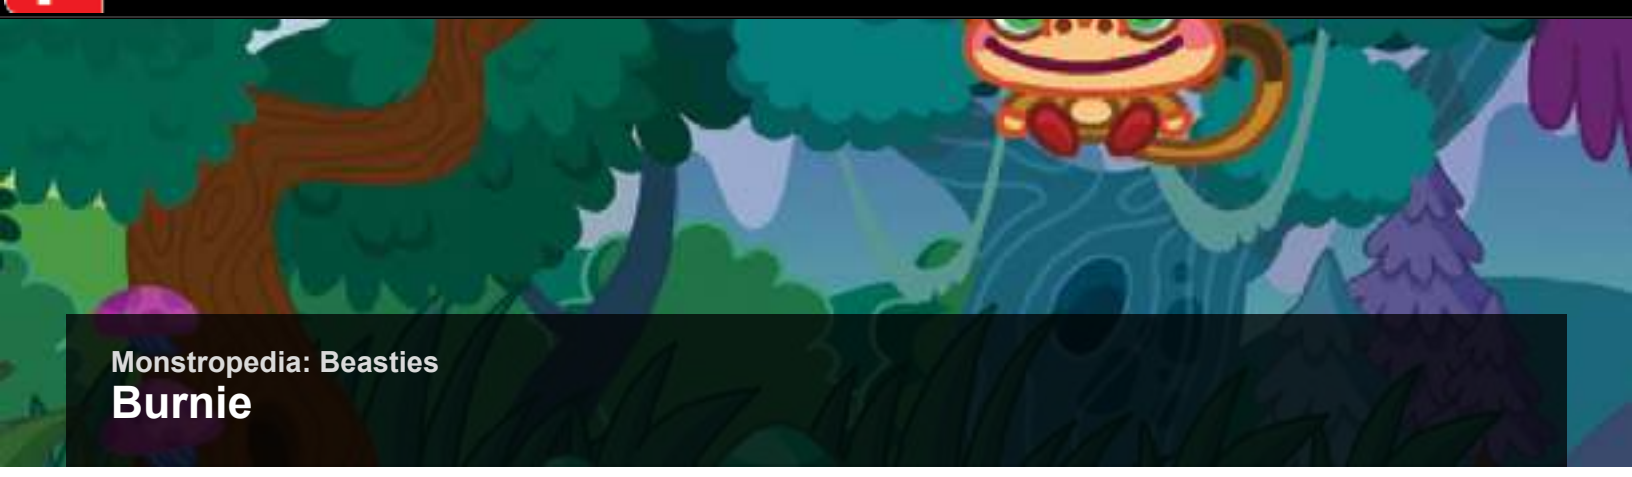


Who's hiding here? Gabby, I.G.G.Y, McNulty...

...Mini Ben, Snookums...



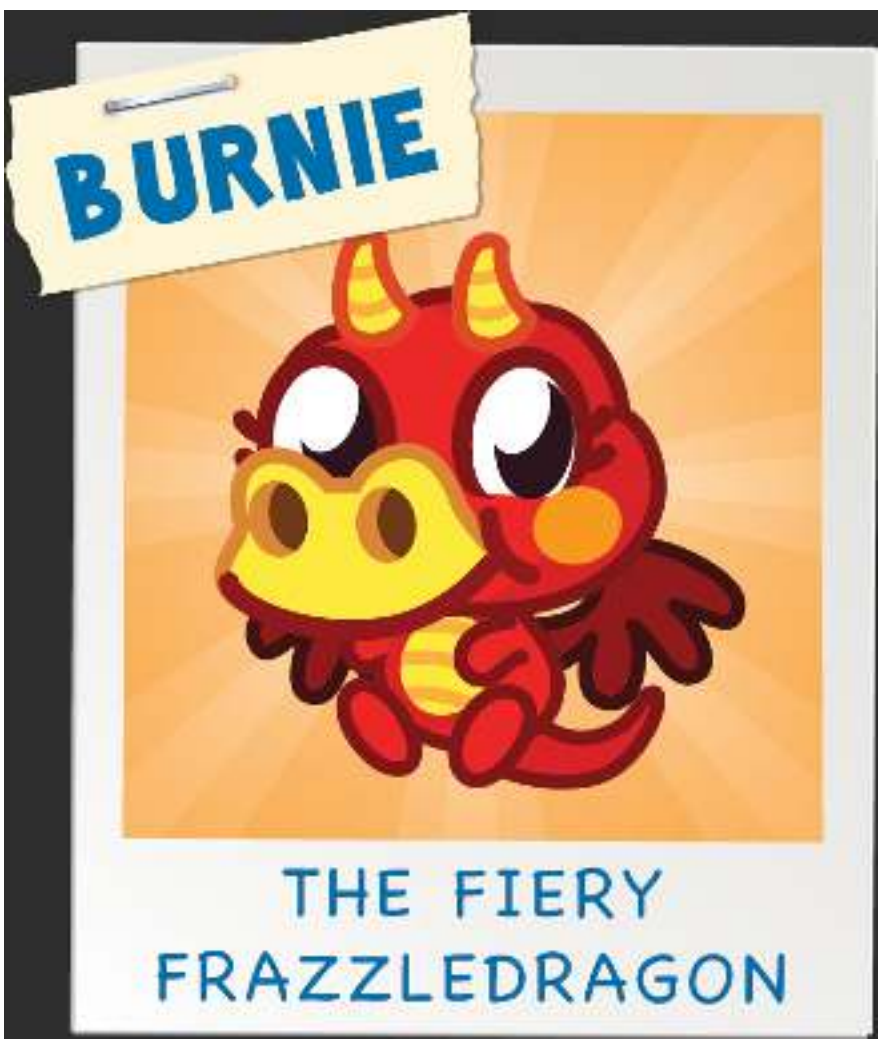
...Sookie-Yaki and White Fang



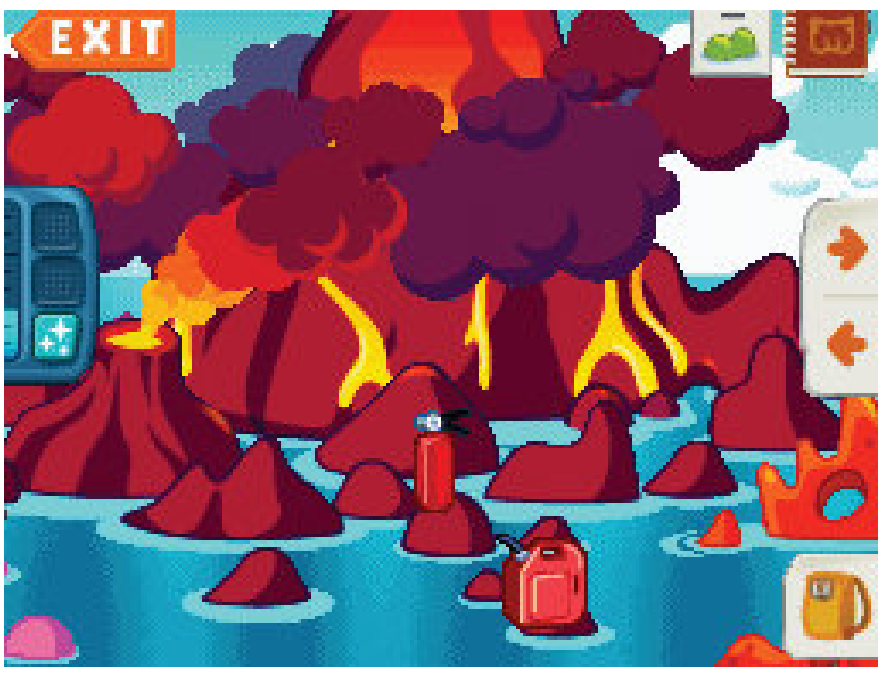
Monstropedia: Beasties

Burnie

ULTA RARE



HABITAT: Taki Taki Islands, on the volcanic island of Emberooze



The perfect spot for a barbecue.

Is it hot on this volcano or is it just...oh, it's just Burnie.

These cheeky flying Beasties get into all kinds of sizzly mayhem, especially if they've been guzzling gasoline.

(Talk about indigestion!) Gasoline is their favorite drink but it gives them terrible flaming hiccups. Fiery Frazzledragons love to char-grill silly sausages, but you'd better keep the fire extinguishers away from them or they'll think the party's over.

BURNIE'S EGG

ADOPTING BURNIE

Burnie's barbecue is easy to spot in the field, but it's not so easy to get Burnie fired up to join your zoo. You'll need to get rid of the fire extinguisher, find the spit, find some gasoline, find or buy Burnie's favorite sausages...and then make sure your zoo is upgraded and leveled up enough to entice these finicky Fiery Frazzledragons to join you.

Humphrey

Habitat: Whoop ‘n’ Holler Valley, in the Skedaddle Prairie Ranch

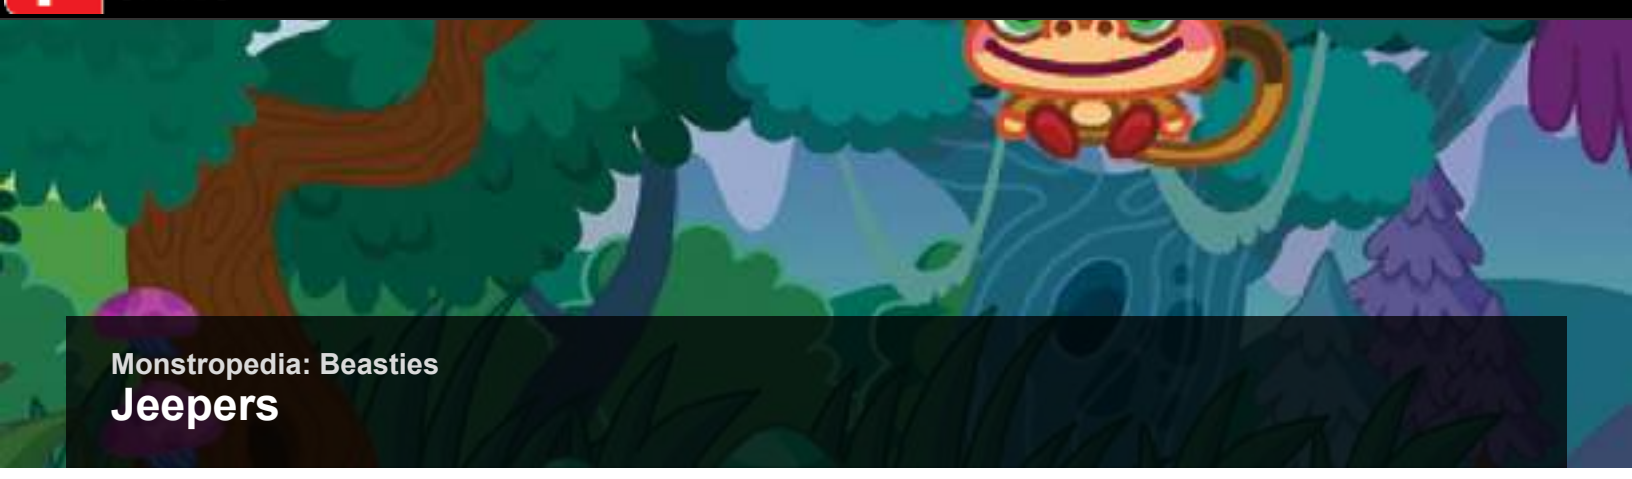
Farm livin’ is the life for Humphrey.

Yee-hah! Say howdy to the Moshlings that love digging, sowing, milking, and mowing: the Snoring Hickopotumuses. If they’re not busy working the ranch, Snoring Hickos enjoy grabbing forty winks under the shade of a wacky windmill. They also enjoy pickin’ on the banjo and mixing lazy daisy lemonade. Humphrey is a friendly fellow...when he’s awake, that is.

BHUMPHREY'S EGG

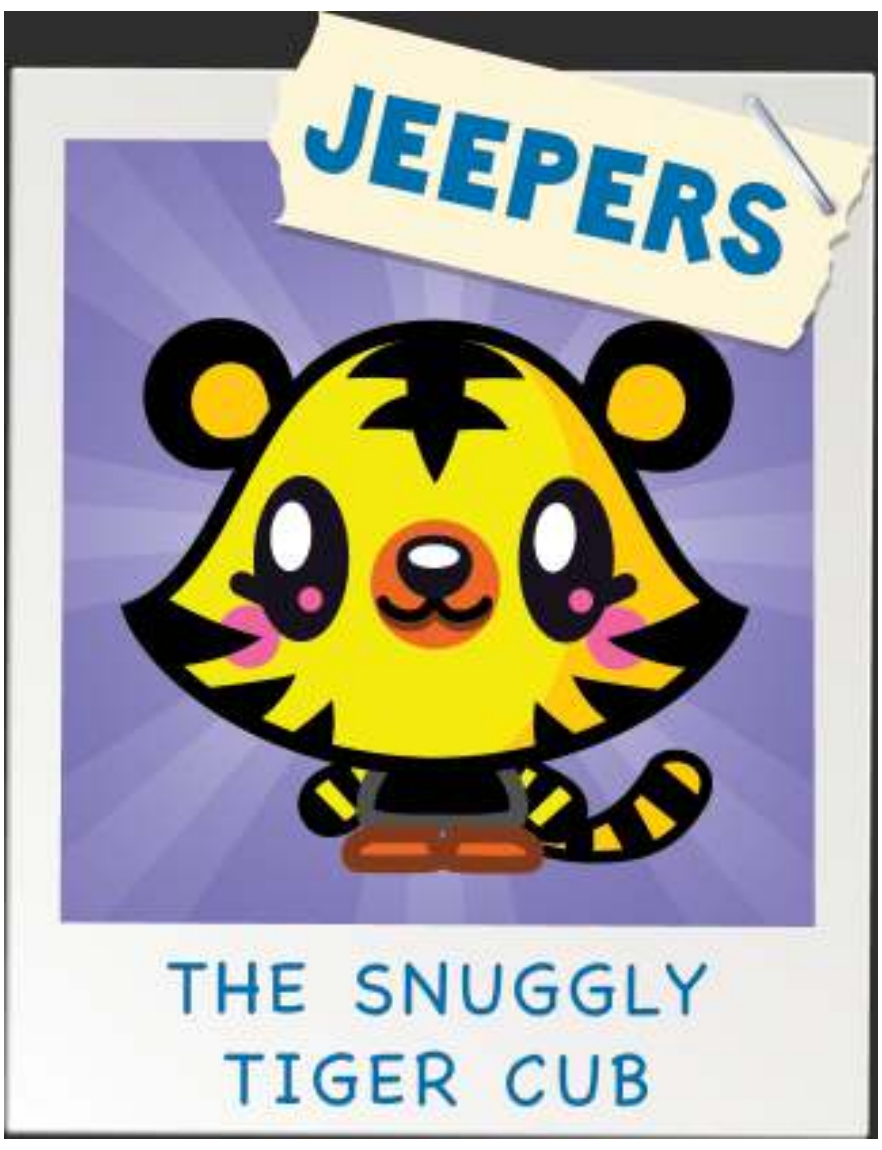
ADOPTING HUMPHREY:

To find Humphrey, go to Whoop ‘n’ Holler Valley and then...go east, young Moshling collector, go east. Humphrey’s hiding out in the shade by the barn at the far right side of this area. Humphrey wants the simple things out of life: a banjo and a home on the range...or in your zoo, as long as you can get him some new twangy banjo strings. Head ‘em up and move ‘em out: you’ve got yourself a fine Hickopotumus!



Monstropedia: Beasties

Jeepers



HABITAT: Wobbly Woods, in the Barmy Swami Jungle

It’s a jungle out here.

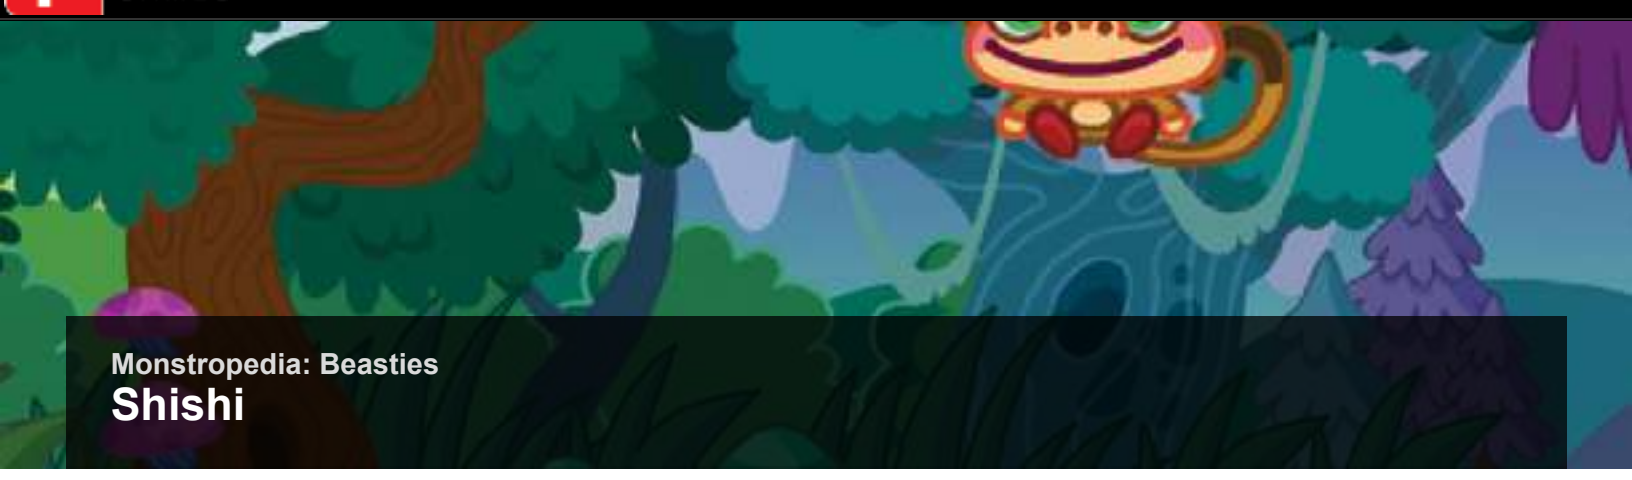
These adorable Moshlings really have earned their stripes.

That’s because they spend ages painting them using inka-inka juice, squeezed from thumpkin seeds. Sadly the jungle is green, not yellow and stripy (but who wants to blend in, anyway)? In addition to decorating themselves, Snuggly Tiger Cubs love sharpening their claws and licking old swoonafish cans.

JEEPER'S EGG

ADOPTING JEEPERS

Appeal to Jeepers’s artistic side and you’ll find a new (and nicely decorated) adoptee. Jeepers requires ground-up thumpkin seeds to make paint, plus painting supplies, but after he’s got what he needs, you’ll have a standout Moshling for your zoo.



Monstropedia: Beasties

Shishi

ULTRA RARE

HABITAT: Wobbly Woods, in front of Gogglebox Gulch

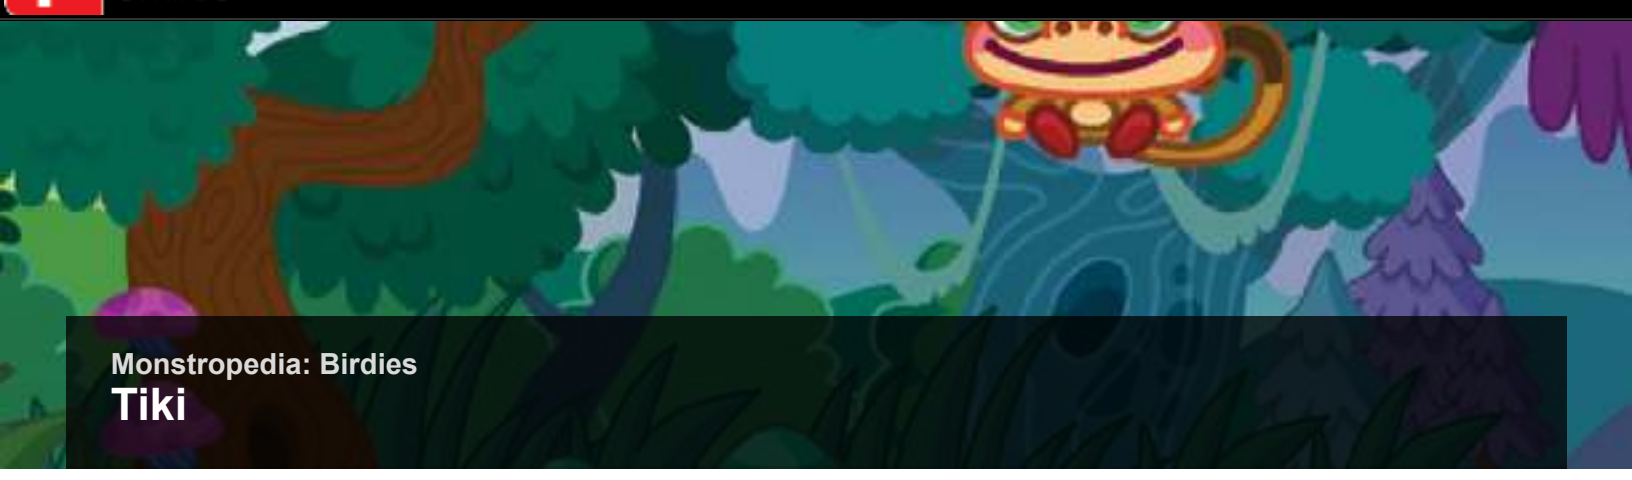
The beautiful but not dust-free woods.

It always seems to be allergy season for Sneezing Pandas. These eyelash-fluttering Moshlings are obsessed with Monstrovision, but even that makes them sneeze. They will live anywhere as long as there is a big screen and comfy chair. When they’re not glued to the screen, Sneezing Pandas are usually fiddling with magical eyedrops or scrunching upextra-soft tissues.

SHISHI'S EGG

ADOPTING SHISHI

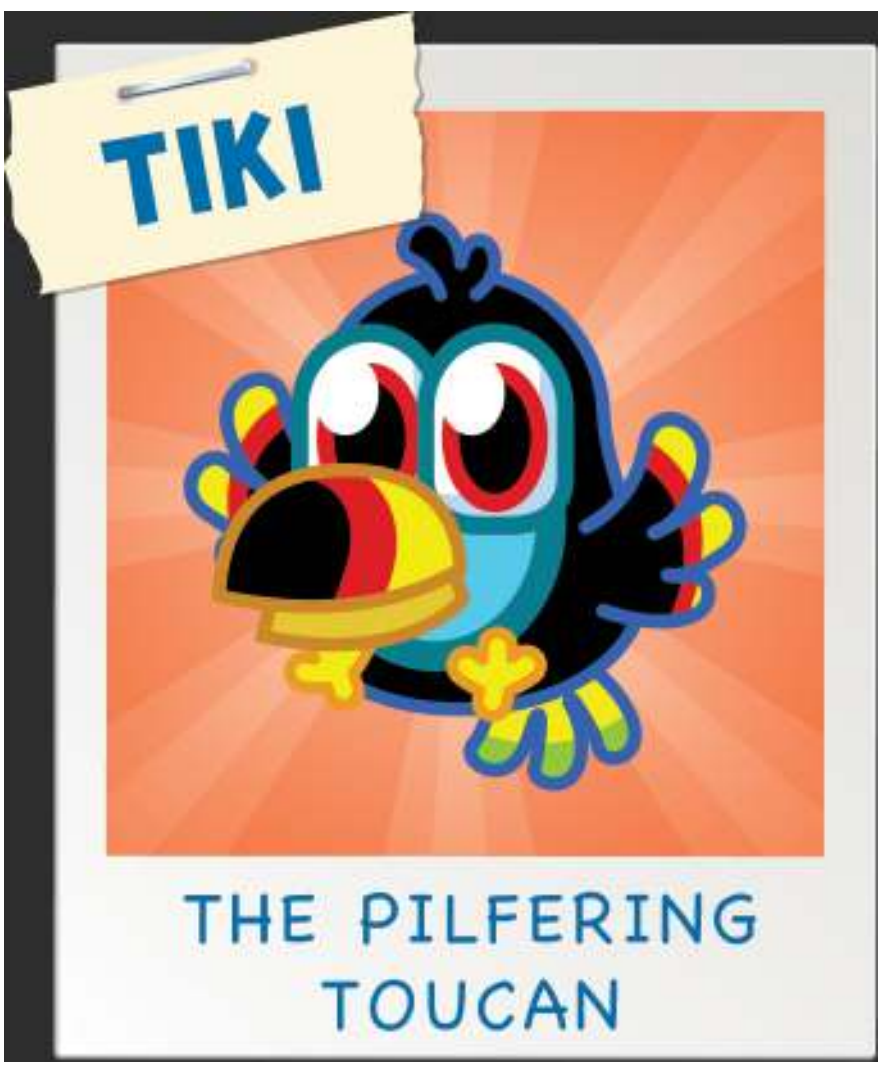
ShiShi requires the best entertainment and the finest tissues to be content. If you can also find some eyedrops, you’ll have won the heart of this Sneezing Panda. Just make sure to dust frequently and be prepared with lots of tissues. (Only extra soft, please.)



Monstropedia: Birdies

Tiki

RARE



HABITAT: Potion Ocean, in the palm trees of Lush Lagoon

Look, up in the sky—a Tiki bird! Admire your catch! (Just don’t stand underneath one for too long....)

Colorful but crafty, Pilfering Toucans can’t resist “borrowing” things from fellow Moshlings. Especially when those things are shiny. And when I say “borrow,” I actually mean “steal” because this thieving flapper is one of the naughtiest pirates on the planet. When Pilfering Toucans aren’t borrowing shiny stuff, they enjoy playing the squeezebox and drinking punch. (Contrary to popular belief, they do not seem to enjoy fruit-flavored breakfast cereals.)

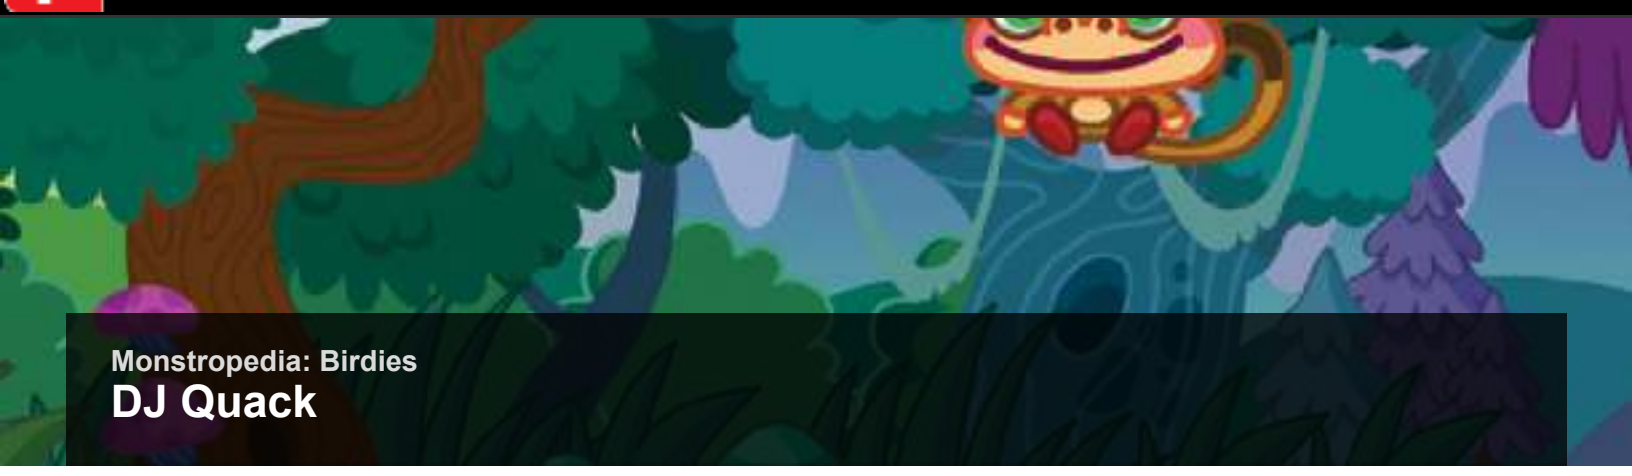
TIKI'S EGG

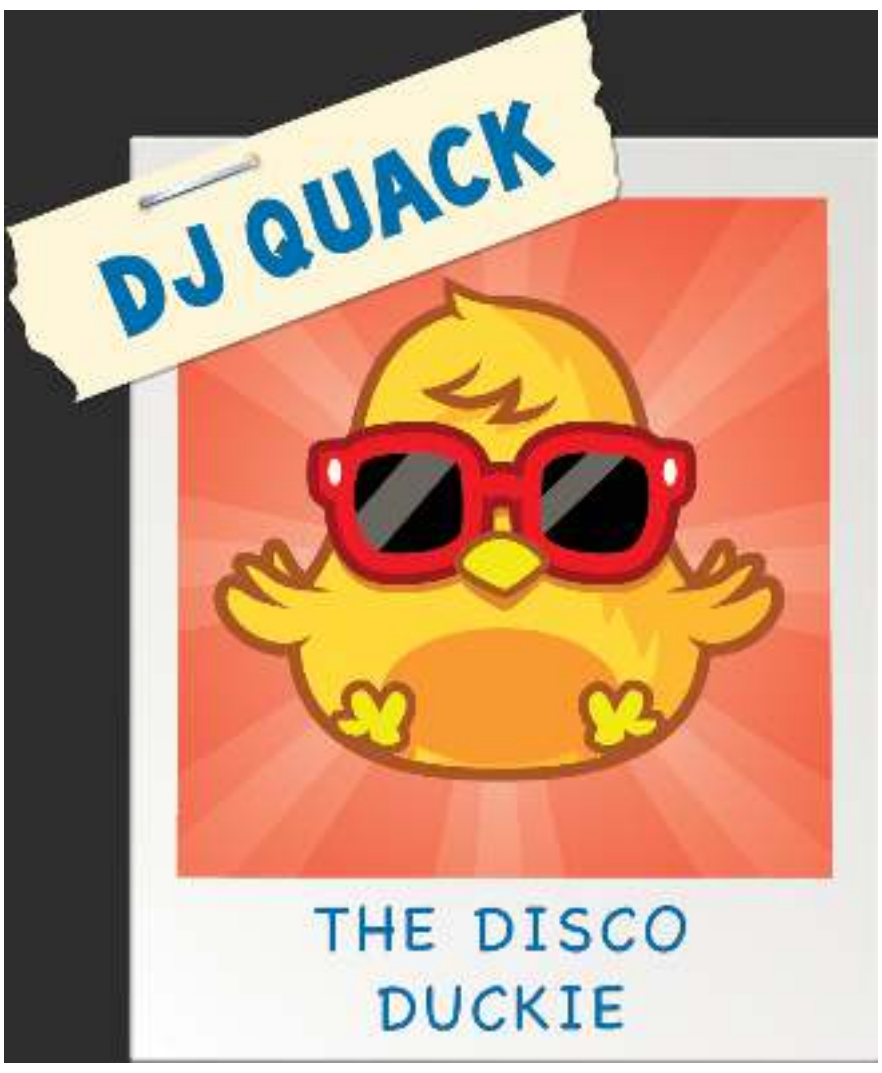
ADOPTING TIKI

You’ve got to distract Pilfering Toucans from stealing some other Moshling’s shiny stuff before they’ll pay you any attention. Offering both a favorite toy and a super-rare Golden Rox gem will make Tiki take notice of you! Win Tiki over with a favorite beverage (hey, it gets hot in the tropics, playing with a squeezebox and collecting jewels).

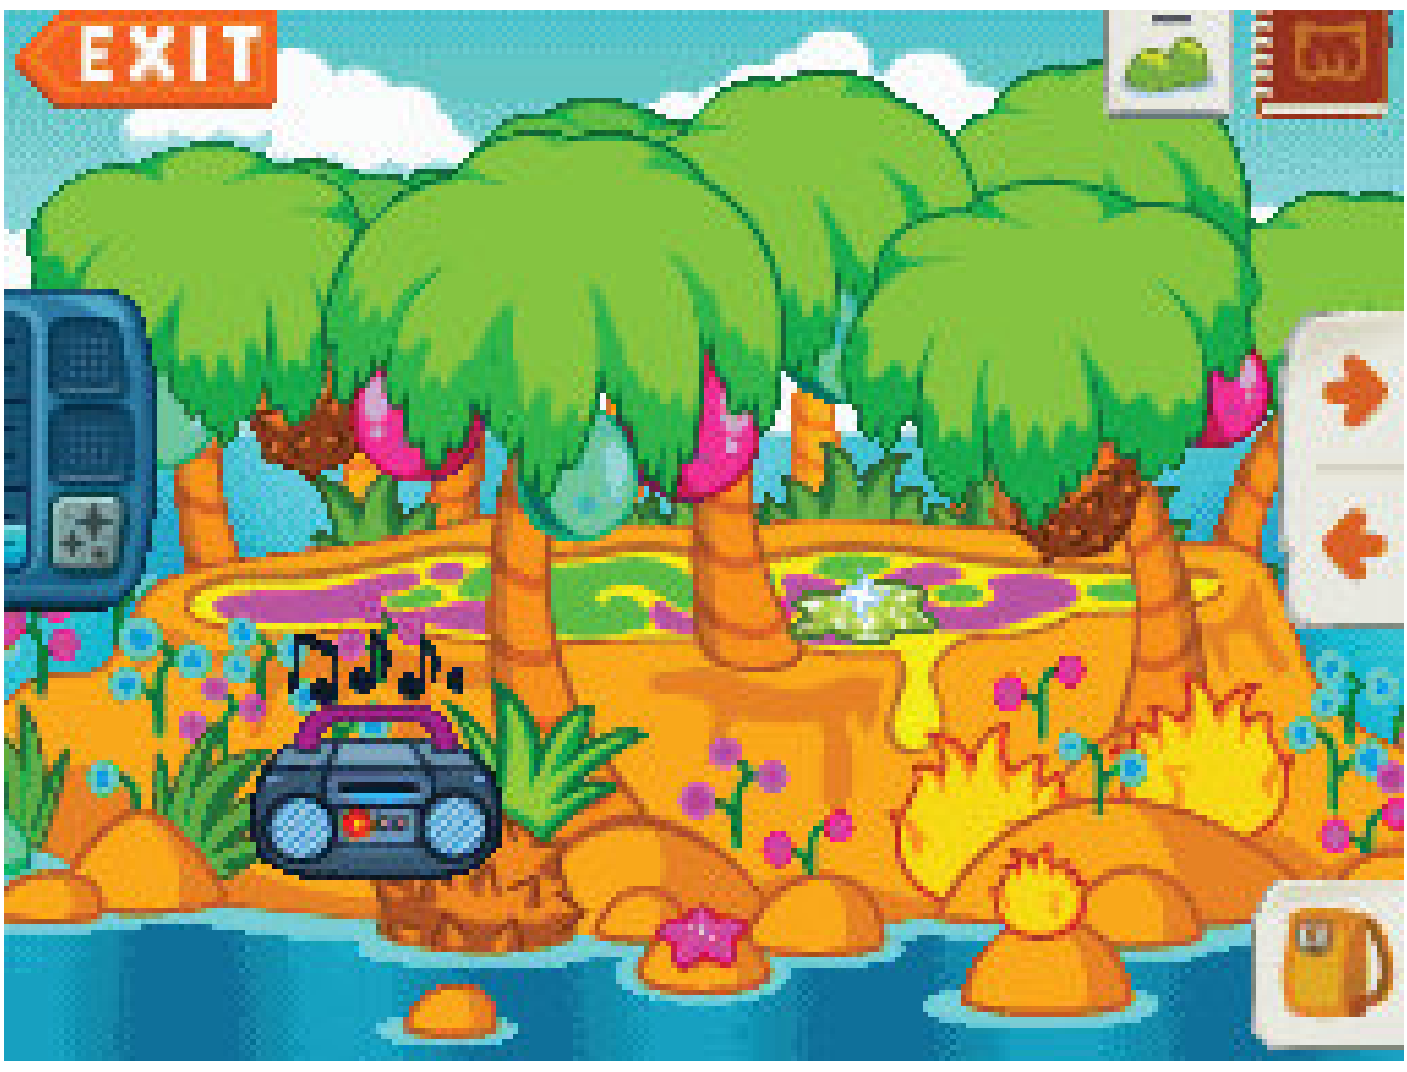


Monstropedia: Birdies

DJ Quack



HABITAT: Taki Taki Islands, in the middle of Lake Neon Soup



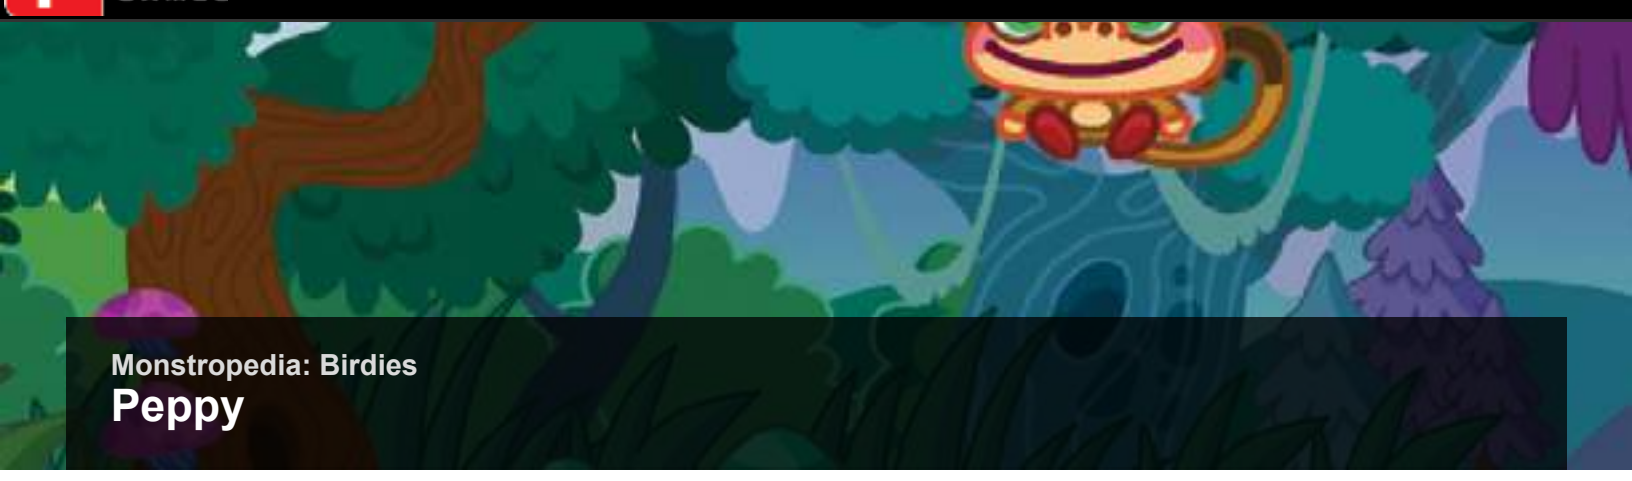
DJ Quack boogies to the beat on an island dancefloor.

You can tell by the way they waddle that Disco Duckies were born to boogie. Moving his feet to the disco beat, DJ Quack shakes a tail feather on the Taki Taki Islands, creating quite the bopping beach party. When they're not flapping around mirrorballs and dipping their beaks in glittery goop, these music-mad Moshlings are busy busting out new dance moves and slicking back their feathers with orange sauce.

DJ QUACK'S

ADOPTING DJ QUACK

There's no stopping a duck and its beat. Find and play that funky music for Disco Duckies and they'll want to waddle right into your zoo—but make sure they'll look good doing it. Find a shiny splatter of glittery goop and DJ Quack will ready to get the party started with your other Moshlings.



Monstropedia: Birdies

Peppy

RARE

HABITAT: Potion Ocean, in the Frosty Pop Glacier

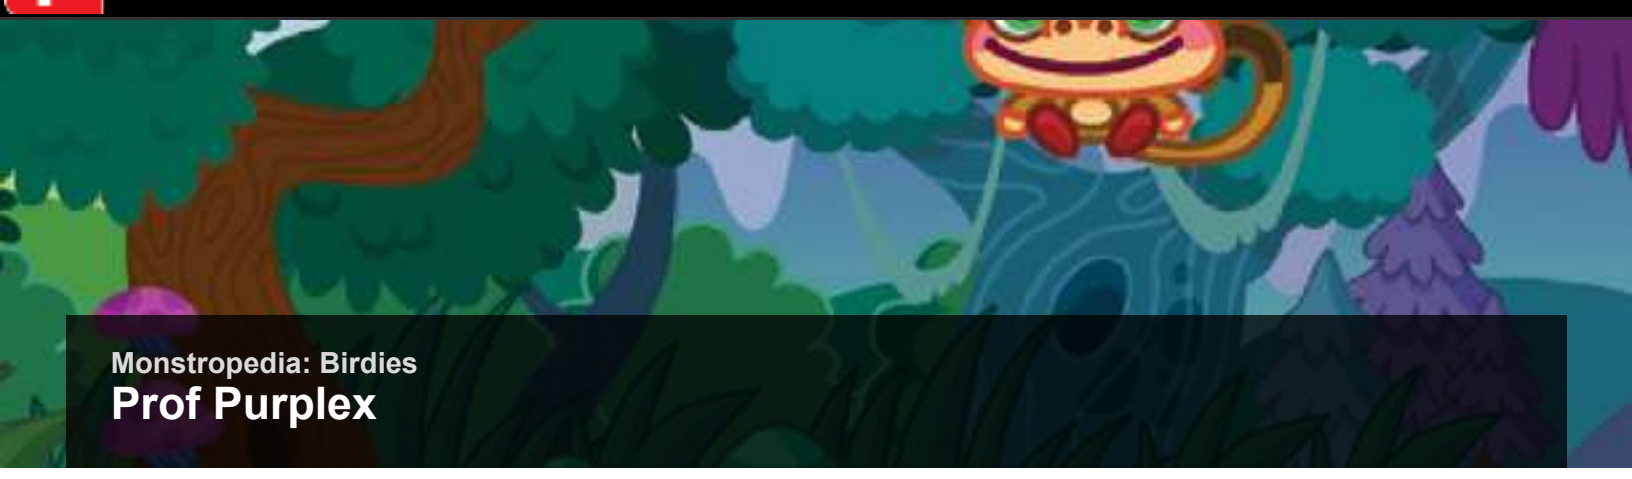
Brrr...it’s cold in here! Perfect popscicle weather for Peppy.

Peppy is one cool customer who loves popsicles, ice, and...bikes. Biker Penguins are rubbish at riding bikes (their feet don’t reach the pedals), but these cool little guys are obsessed by two-wheels. So they slide along on their tummies making vroom-vroom noises and revving the air with their stumpy wings. Biker Penguins also scarf down a hundred pilchard popsicles a day!

PEPPY'S EGG

ADOPTING PEPPY

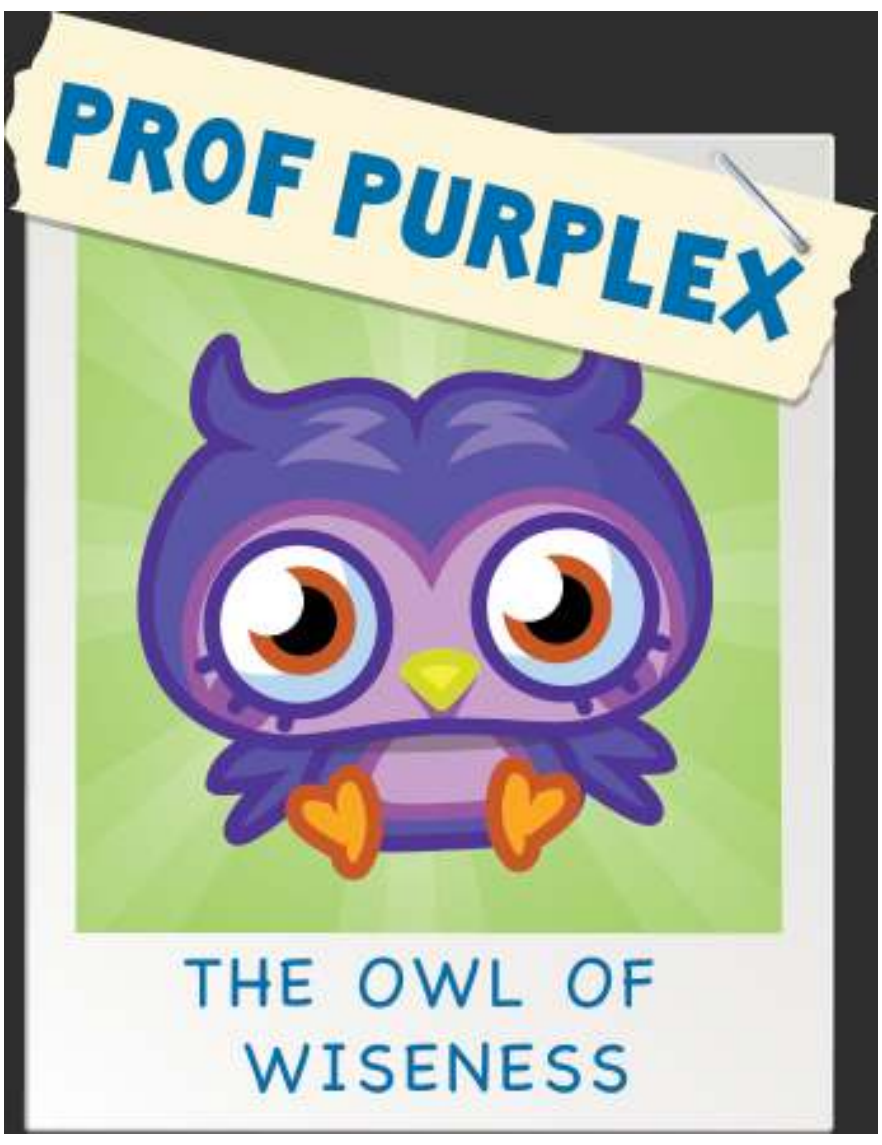
Peppy’s favorite things can all be found in his homeland, Potion Ocean. You won’t find any frosty favorites in the tropics, however; head to Frosty Pop Glacier for a freezer and popsicle boxes! Place the popsicles in the freezer, and Peppy will think you’re pretty cool.



Monstropedia: Birdies

Prof Purplex

RARE



HABITAT: Wobbly Woods, in a tree hollow

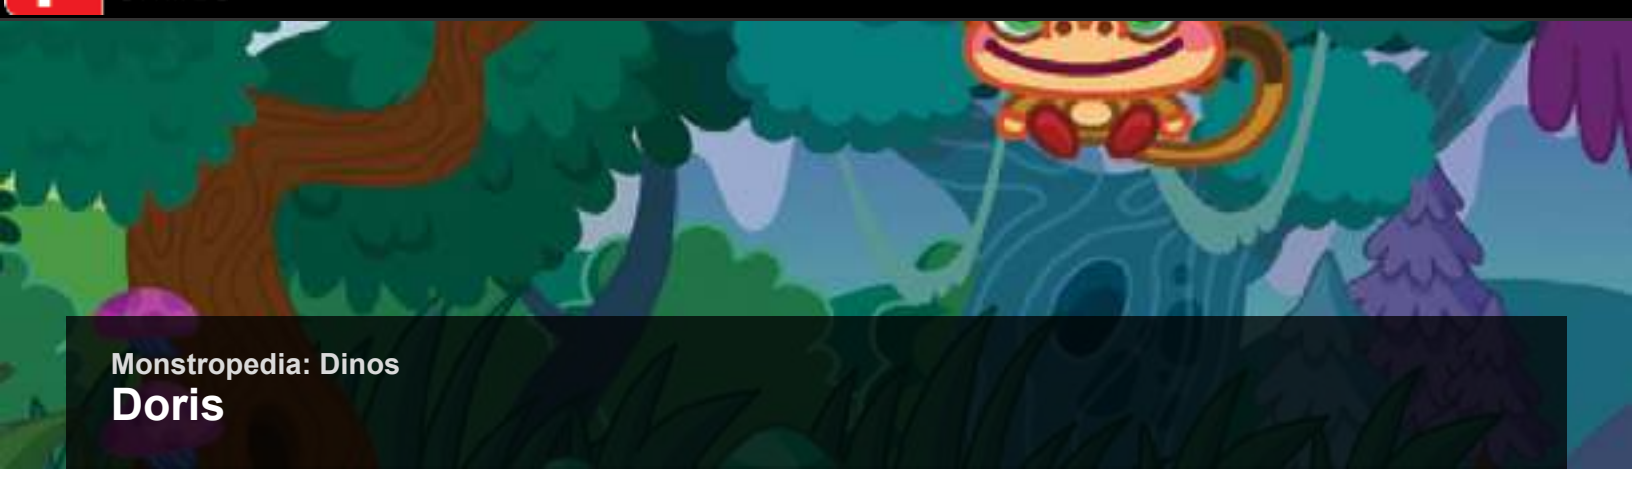
An Owl of Wiseness, waiting for you!

Owls of Wiseness are brainier than big brain pies with extra brain sprinkles. Able to digest an entire encyclopedia in ten seconds, these brainy birds have an appetite for knowledge—literally! Prof. Purplex enjoys art and literature, so hide your comics, because pictures are worth a thousand words. They also love the sound of plinky piano playing.

PROF PURLEX'S EGG

ADOPTING PROF PURPLEX

Adopting Prof. Purplex isn’t perplexing; use your brain to meet Prof. Purplex’s needs! Find the missing book from its collection and sheet music for the plinky piano, and you’ll soon be able to add this Owl of Wiseness to you own Moshling collection. Brilliant! Whooo’s there?



Monstropedia: Dinos

Doris

HABITAT: Wobbly Woods, around the Garden Plot

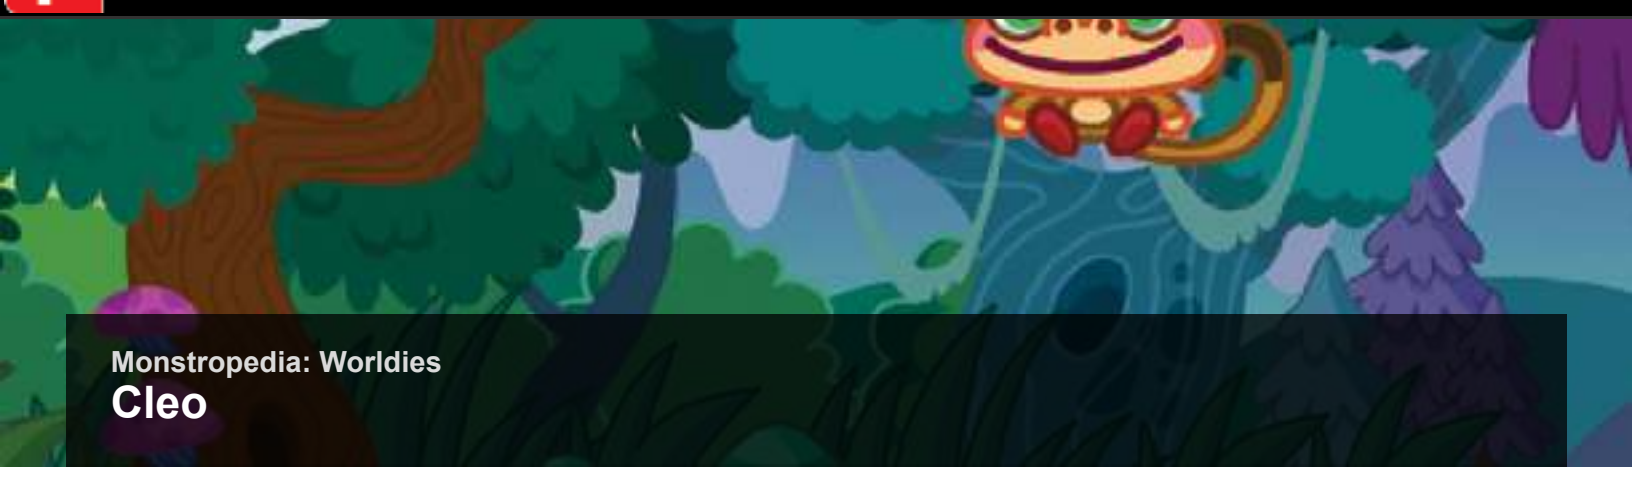
Unlike regular Plotamususes, Rummaging Plotamususes are obsessed with digging for fluffles, valuable toadstools that smell of licorice. These gentle little Moshlings also hibernate for much of the year. When they're not burrowing or snoozing, Plotamususes love gardening and gossiping. Doris would make a delightful addition to your zoo.

DORIS'S EGG

ADOPTING DORIS

Doris can't resist a beautiful garden, so make sure this one is in blooming great shape to attract her. Plant Moon Orchid seeds (you can find them near the garden) in the empty and filled-with-dead-flowers spots in the plot, water, and watch them grow! Doris is sure to stop by and admire your work. And remember, like all the Dinos, Doris won't appear unless your zoo's Dino house is open and upgraded.

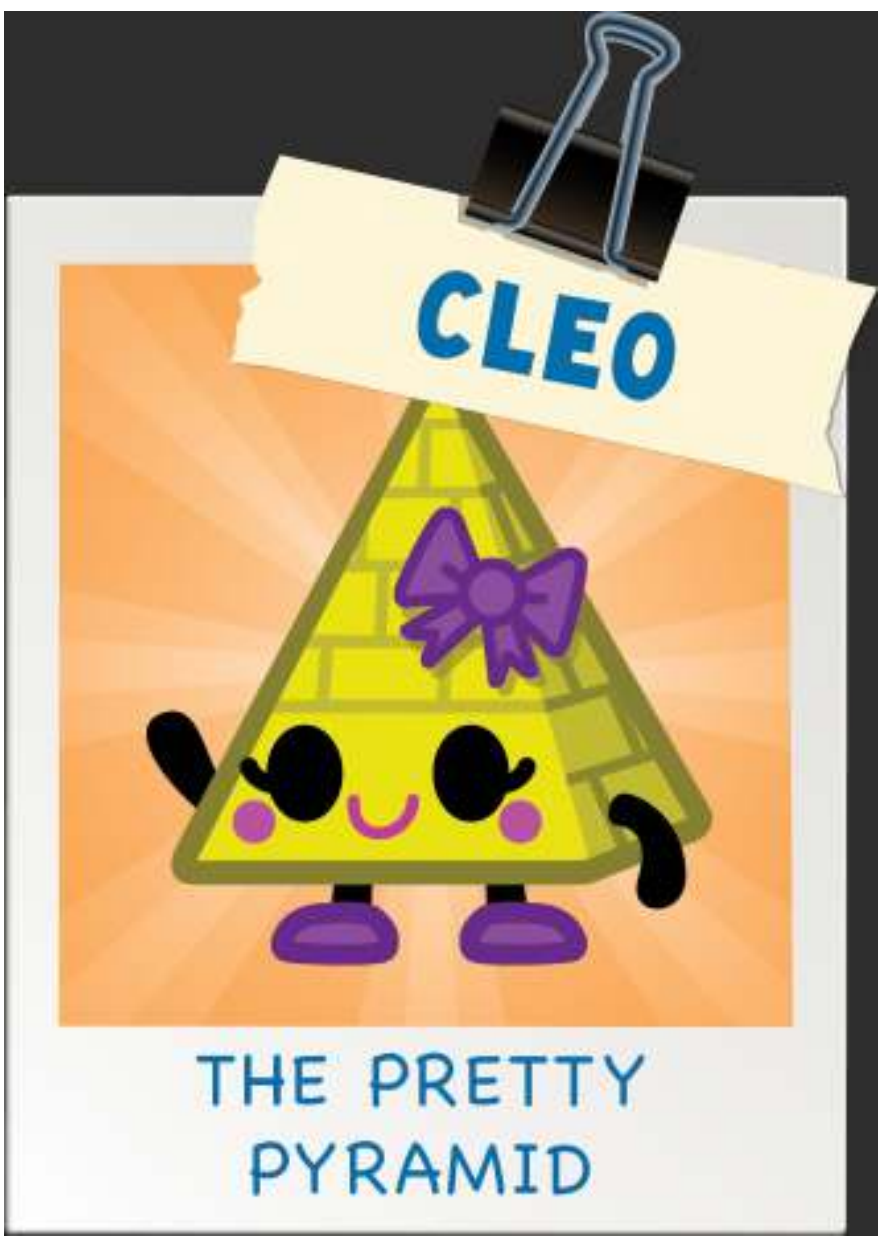
Tiptoe through the Moon Orchid flowers.



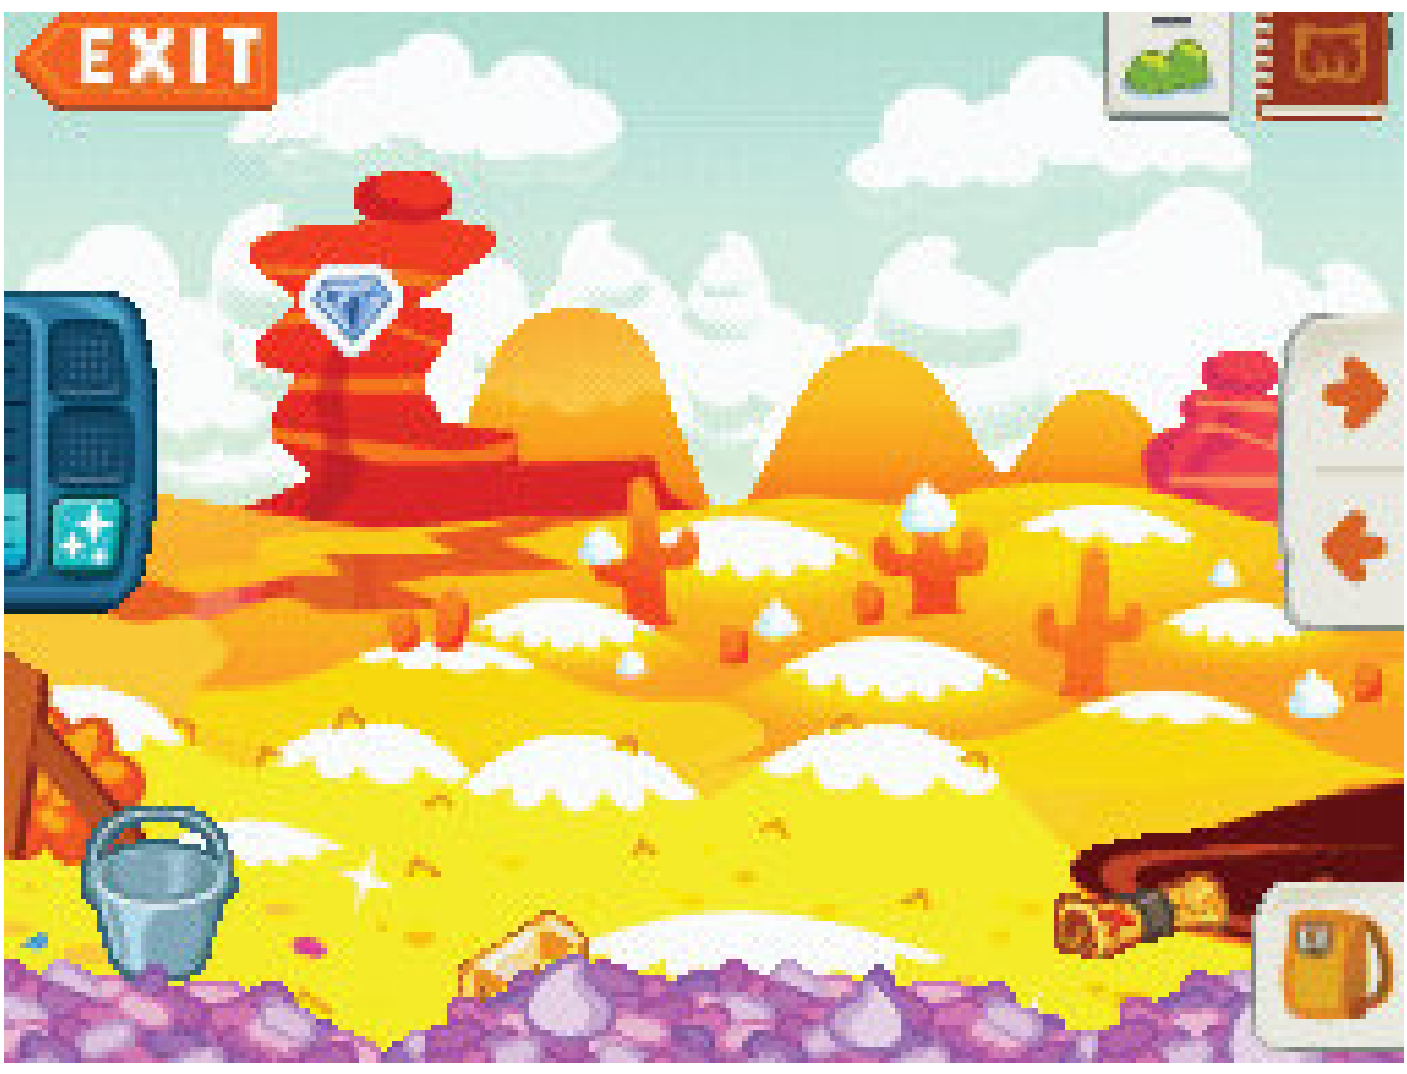
Monstropedia: Worldies

Cleo

ULTRA RARE



HABITAT: Dessert Desert, on the Banks of River Smile



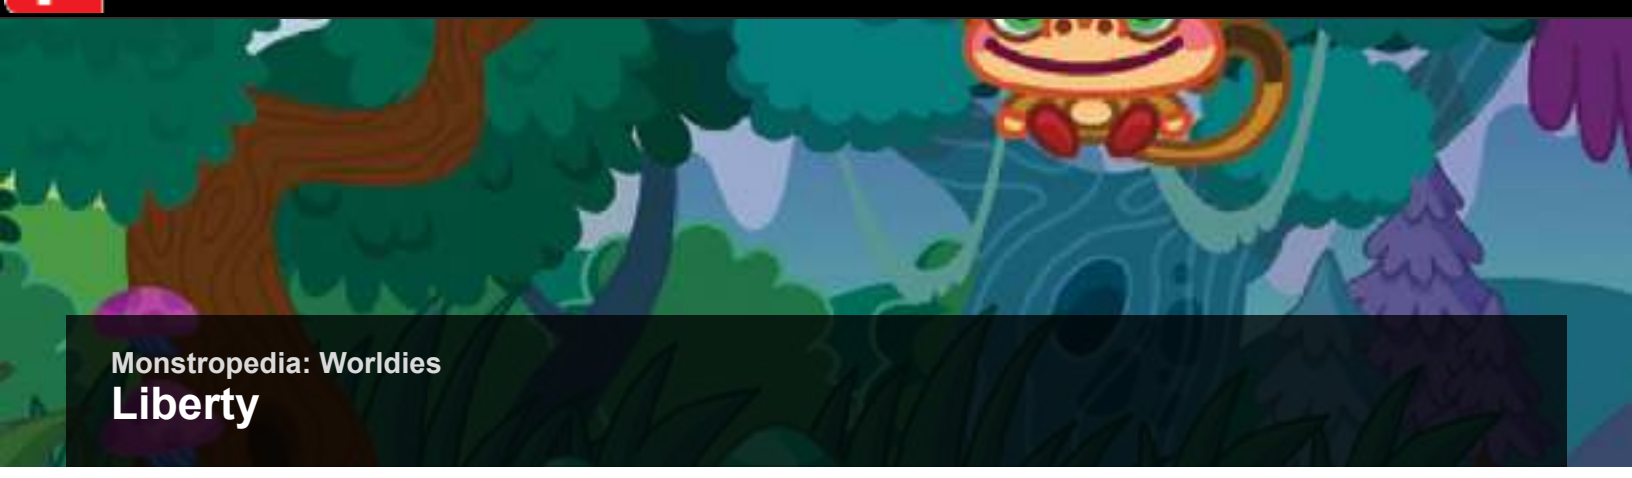
There’s room for a lot of sandcastles here.

Experts thought Pretty Pyramids were extinct until a sandstorm blew away a desert dune, revealing the lost valley of iSissi. Apart from making big sand castles, these Moshlings spend their days searching for lost treasure. They also love precious stones (especially Rox) and anything made of gold.

CLEO'S EGG

ADOPTING CLEO

Cleo is on the hunt for treasure, and a map will guide her straight to it. She loves shiny stones and gold objects, so a sparkly golden Rox gem is the best treasure of all! But how can she collect treasure and build those famous sandcastles? A bucket is just what she needs! And remember, like all the Worldies, Cleo won’t appear unless your zoo’s Worldie house is open and upgraded.



Monstropedia: Worldies

Liberty

RARE

HABITAT: Taki Taki Islands, on Divinity Island

Divinity Island, with Liberty and ice cream cones for all.

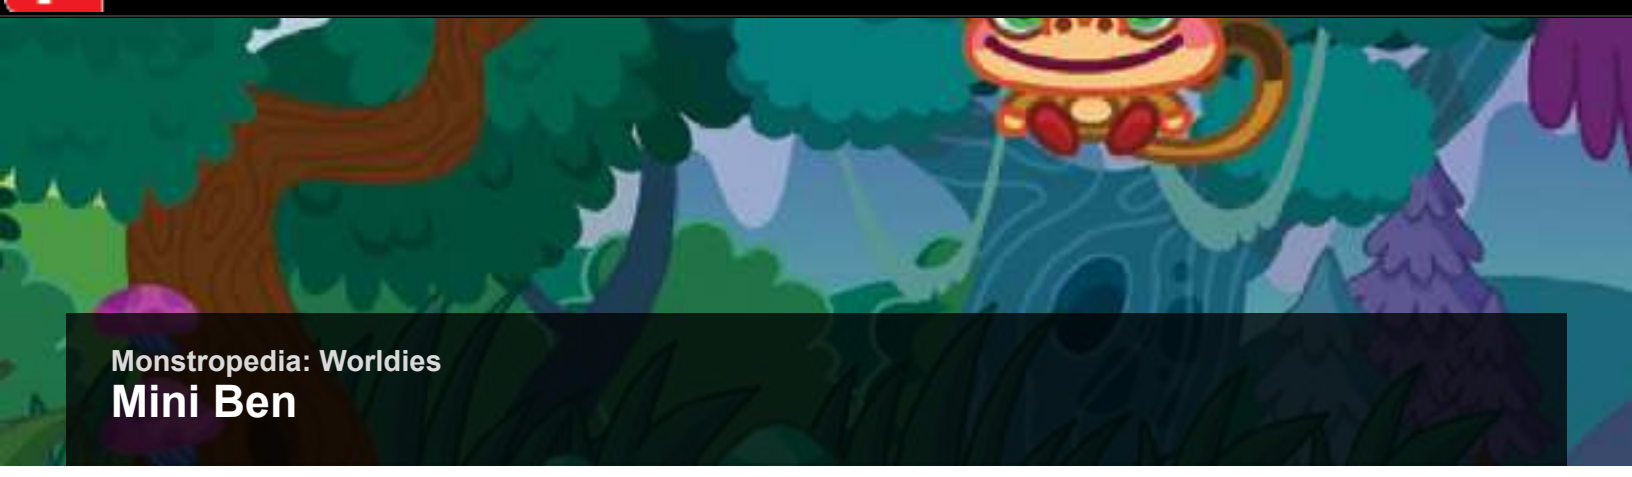
With an ice cream in one hand and a wish list in the other, Happy Statues believe in having fun, playing games, and making dream books.

It’s not that they are greedy, they just adore wishing for yummy treats, cool clothes, and twinkly trinkets. Just don’t let them run out of batteries. Liberty requires a lot of energy!

LIBERTY'S EGG

ADOPTING LIBERTY

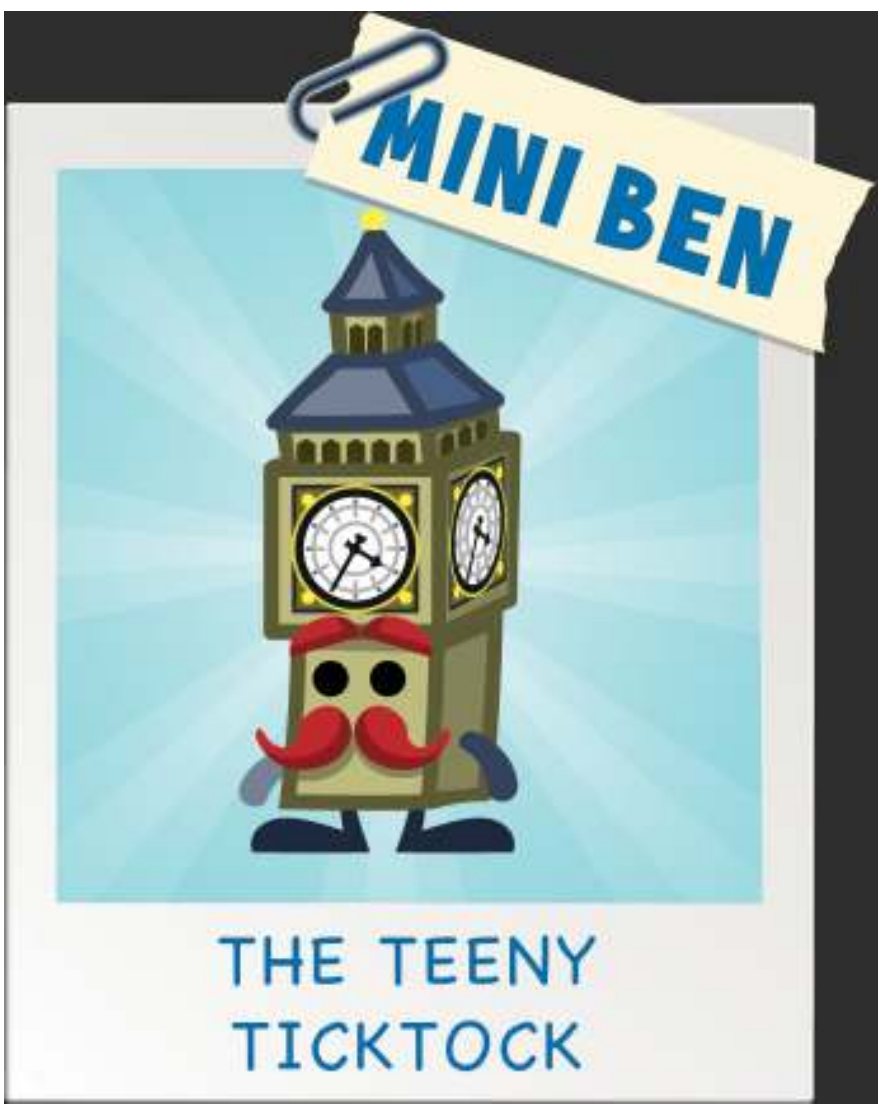
Chasing after Liberty is what this old Moshling collector calls the pursuit of happiness! Keep Liberty alive with some batteries. After she’s come to life, help her find her dream book and the pictures that go in it. Liberty can’t lose her dreams! And remember, like all the Worldies, Liberty won’t appear unless your zoo’s Worldie house is open and upgraded.



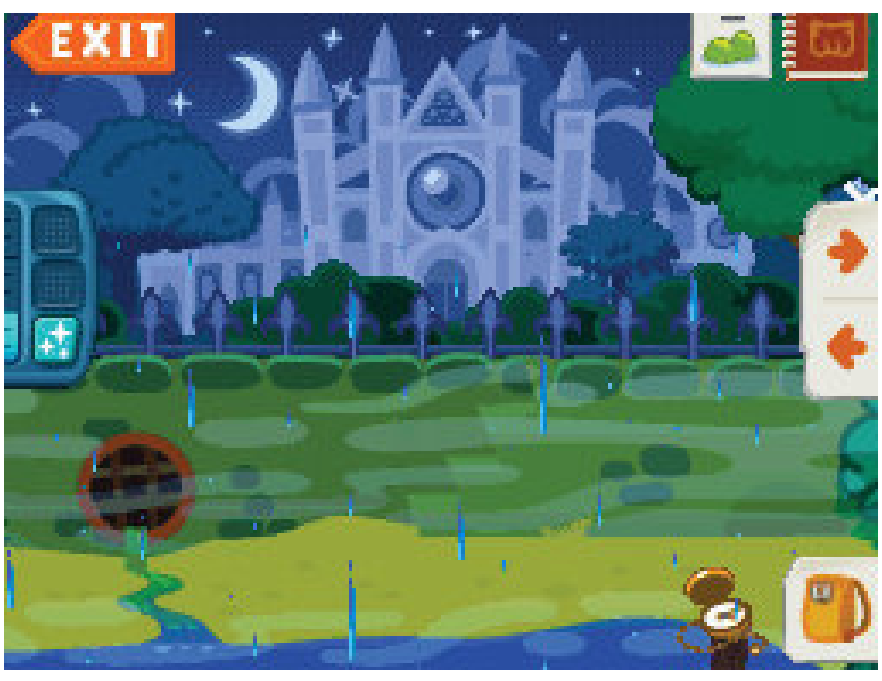
Monstropedia: Worldies

Mini Ben

ULTRA RARE



HABITAT: East Grumble, near Westmonster Abbey
The boo-tiful Westmonster Alley.



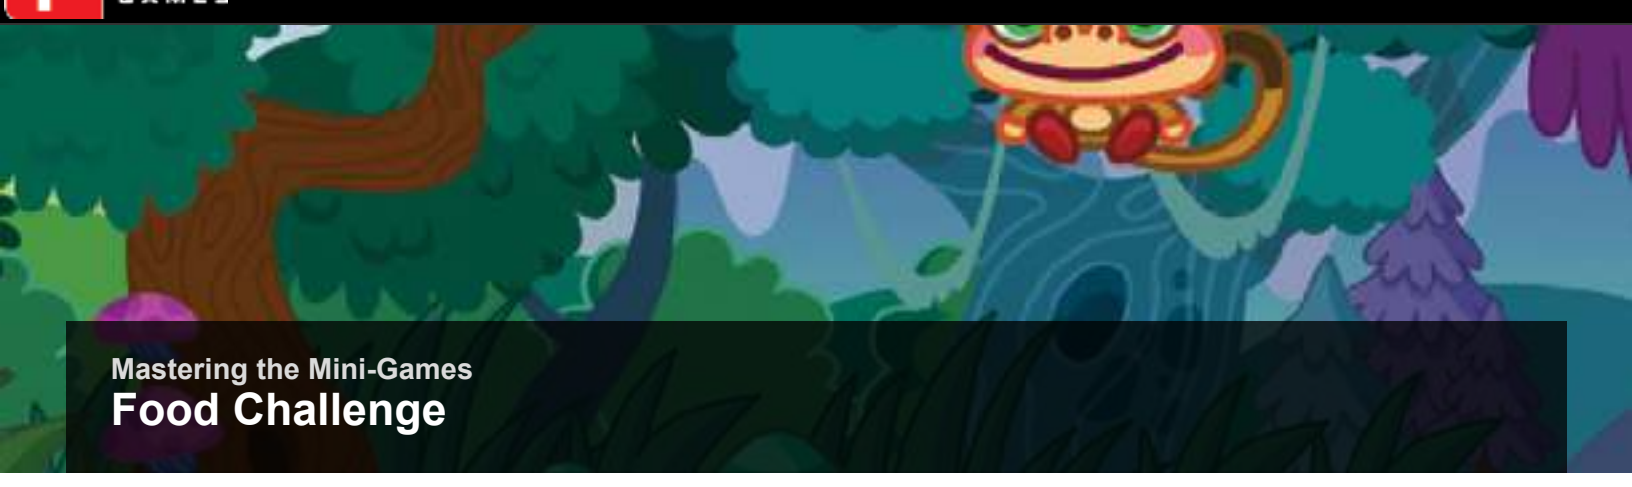
Teeny TickTocks love chiming on the hour, every hour.

These terribly old-fashioned chaps enjoy waxing their bushy moustaches, nibbling cucumber sandwiches, and asking everyone the time. Well, have you ever tried looking at a clock that's on top of your head? It's harder than you think!

MINI BEN'S EGG

ADOPTING MINI BEN

Mini Ben is a nice old clock who really needs a hand: First bring him a wristwatch, so he can finally tell the time for himself. Splendid! Next, help Mini Ben by finding his favorite moustache wax; he'll be looking quite dashing in no time. When it's tea time, bring a basket full of tiny sandwiches. Smashing! Mini Ben will be jolly glad to have met you! And remember, like all the Worldies, Mini Ben won't appear unless your zoo's Worldie house is open and upgraded.



Mastering the Mini-Games

Food Challenge

All zookeepers must take care of their critters, but in your zoo, you also get to play games with yours! You can play mini-games with the Moshlings in your zoo to feed them, bathe them, and train them.

As you play the training mini-games, you'll earn lots of Rox, but you'll also level up your Moshlings to increase their performance in the most important Moshling competition around: the Ulti-Moshling Contest!

Moshlings are ready to chow down!.

This game is all about really fast food. Your job is to put together a disgustingly delicious combination of plate color, food, syrup, and a topping, and feed it to each Moshling before the timer runs out!

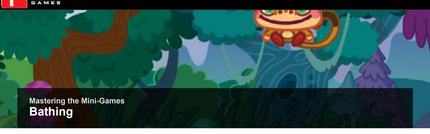
You must match the meal you serve to the picture that shows what each Moshling wants.

A hungry crowd of Moshlings can get mighty impatient.

There are two ways you can get to the Food Challenge mini-game: by clicking on a Moshling in your zoo, or through the Glormatorium. If you want to earn Rox and feed a certain Moshling at the same time, go to your zoo, click on a Moshling, and choose the Food Challenge icon. Your Moshling's hunger status will improve after successfully playing this game!

If you play by going through the Glormatorium, you'll earn Rox and your zoo level will go up, but you won't benefit any one Moshling's hunger status. Start from the bottom up: plate first, then food item, then syrup, and then a topping. Remember to drag your dish to the Moshling to feed it, or it won't count!

If you get behind, you might want to skip over one Moshling whose time is almost up and move ahead to the next in line to get back on track. You have five chances to skip over Moshlings before your game's over, and you'll get 25 Rox for each Moshling you feed. Moshlings will eat a plate of food that isn't theirs (they must really be hungry!), and they'll leave after eating, but you won't get credit for feeding that Moshling.



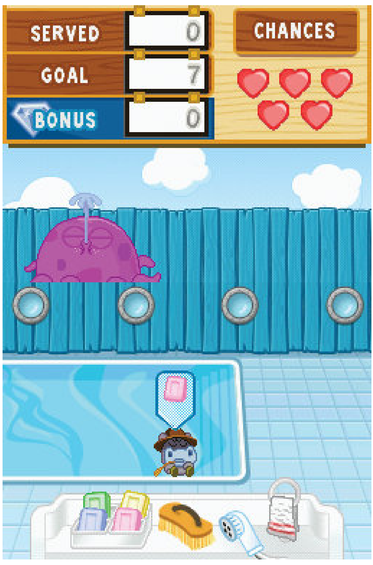
Mastering the Mini-Games

Bathing

Rub-a-dub-dub, Moshlings in the tub! All that playing around in the Wooly Wilderness and roughhousing in the zoo can really make a Moshling dirty.

Clean your Moshling by matching the soap color to each Moshling, dragging it over to the Moshling, and repeat, until the graphic changes to the next step: the scrub brush.

Keep dragging the scrub brush until it changes to a shower, and then the towel. Wash, rinse, and repeat for all the Moshlings in your tub!



Splish splash, one Moshling in the bath!

These Moshlings don't want to stay in the tub too long, though; you've got to be quick, before they wander away! You've got five chances (represented by the hearts) to lose Moshlings before your game's over and the time runs out. You'll get 10 Rox for each Moshling you get squeaky clean!

You've got a full pool!

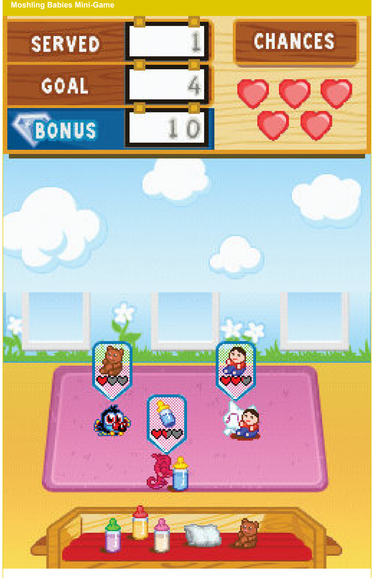
Just like the Food Challenge, there are two ways you can get to the Bathing mini-game: by clicking on a Moshling in your zoo, or through the Glormatorium.

If you want to earn Rox and bathe a certain Moshling at the same time, go to your zoo, click on a Moshling, and choose the Bathing icon. Your Moshling's cleanliness level will improve after successfully playing this game!

If you play by going through the Glormatorium, your Moshlings' cleanliness will improve even more (although slightly). You'll also earn Rox and your zoo level will increase.

Note

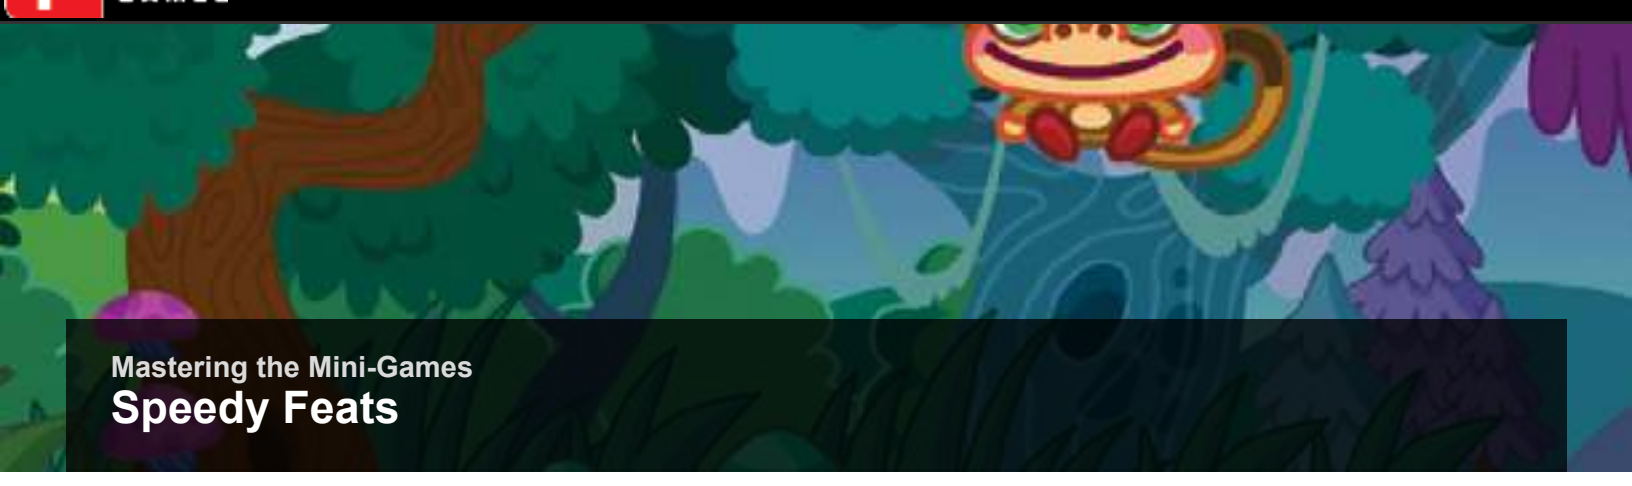
Moshling Babies Mini-Game



The cutest mini-game around is the Moshling babies game! To play, you can visit my place, Buster's Baby Care Center, or select any baby Moshling in your zoo and click on the nursery icon.

The game sends you to the nursery and gives you four Moshling babies to comfort; you need to drag the object each baby wants to the baby, and let it get its fill of cuddling to earn 10 Rox per baby.

This game might not bring in lots of Rox or send your training levels soaring, but those baby Moshlings are irresistible!

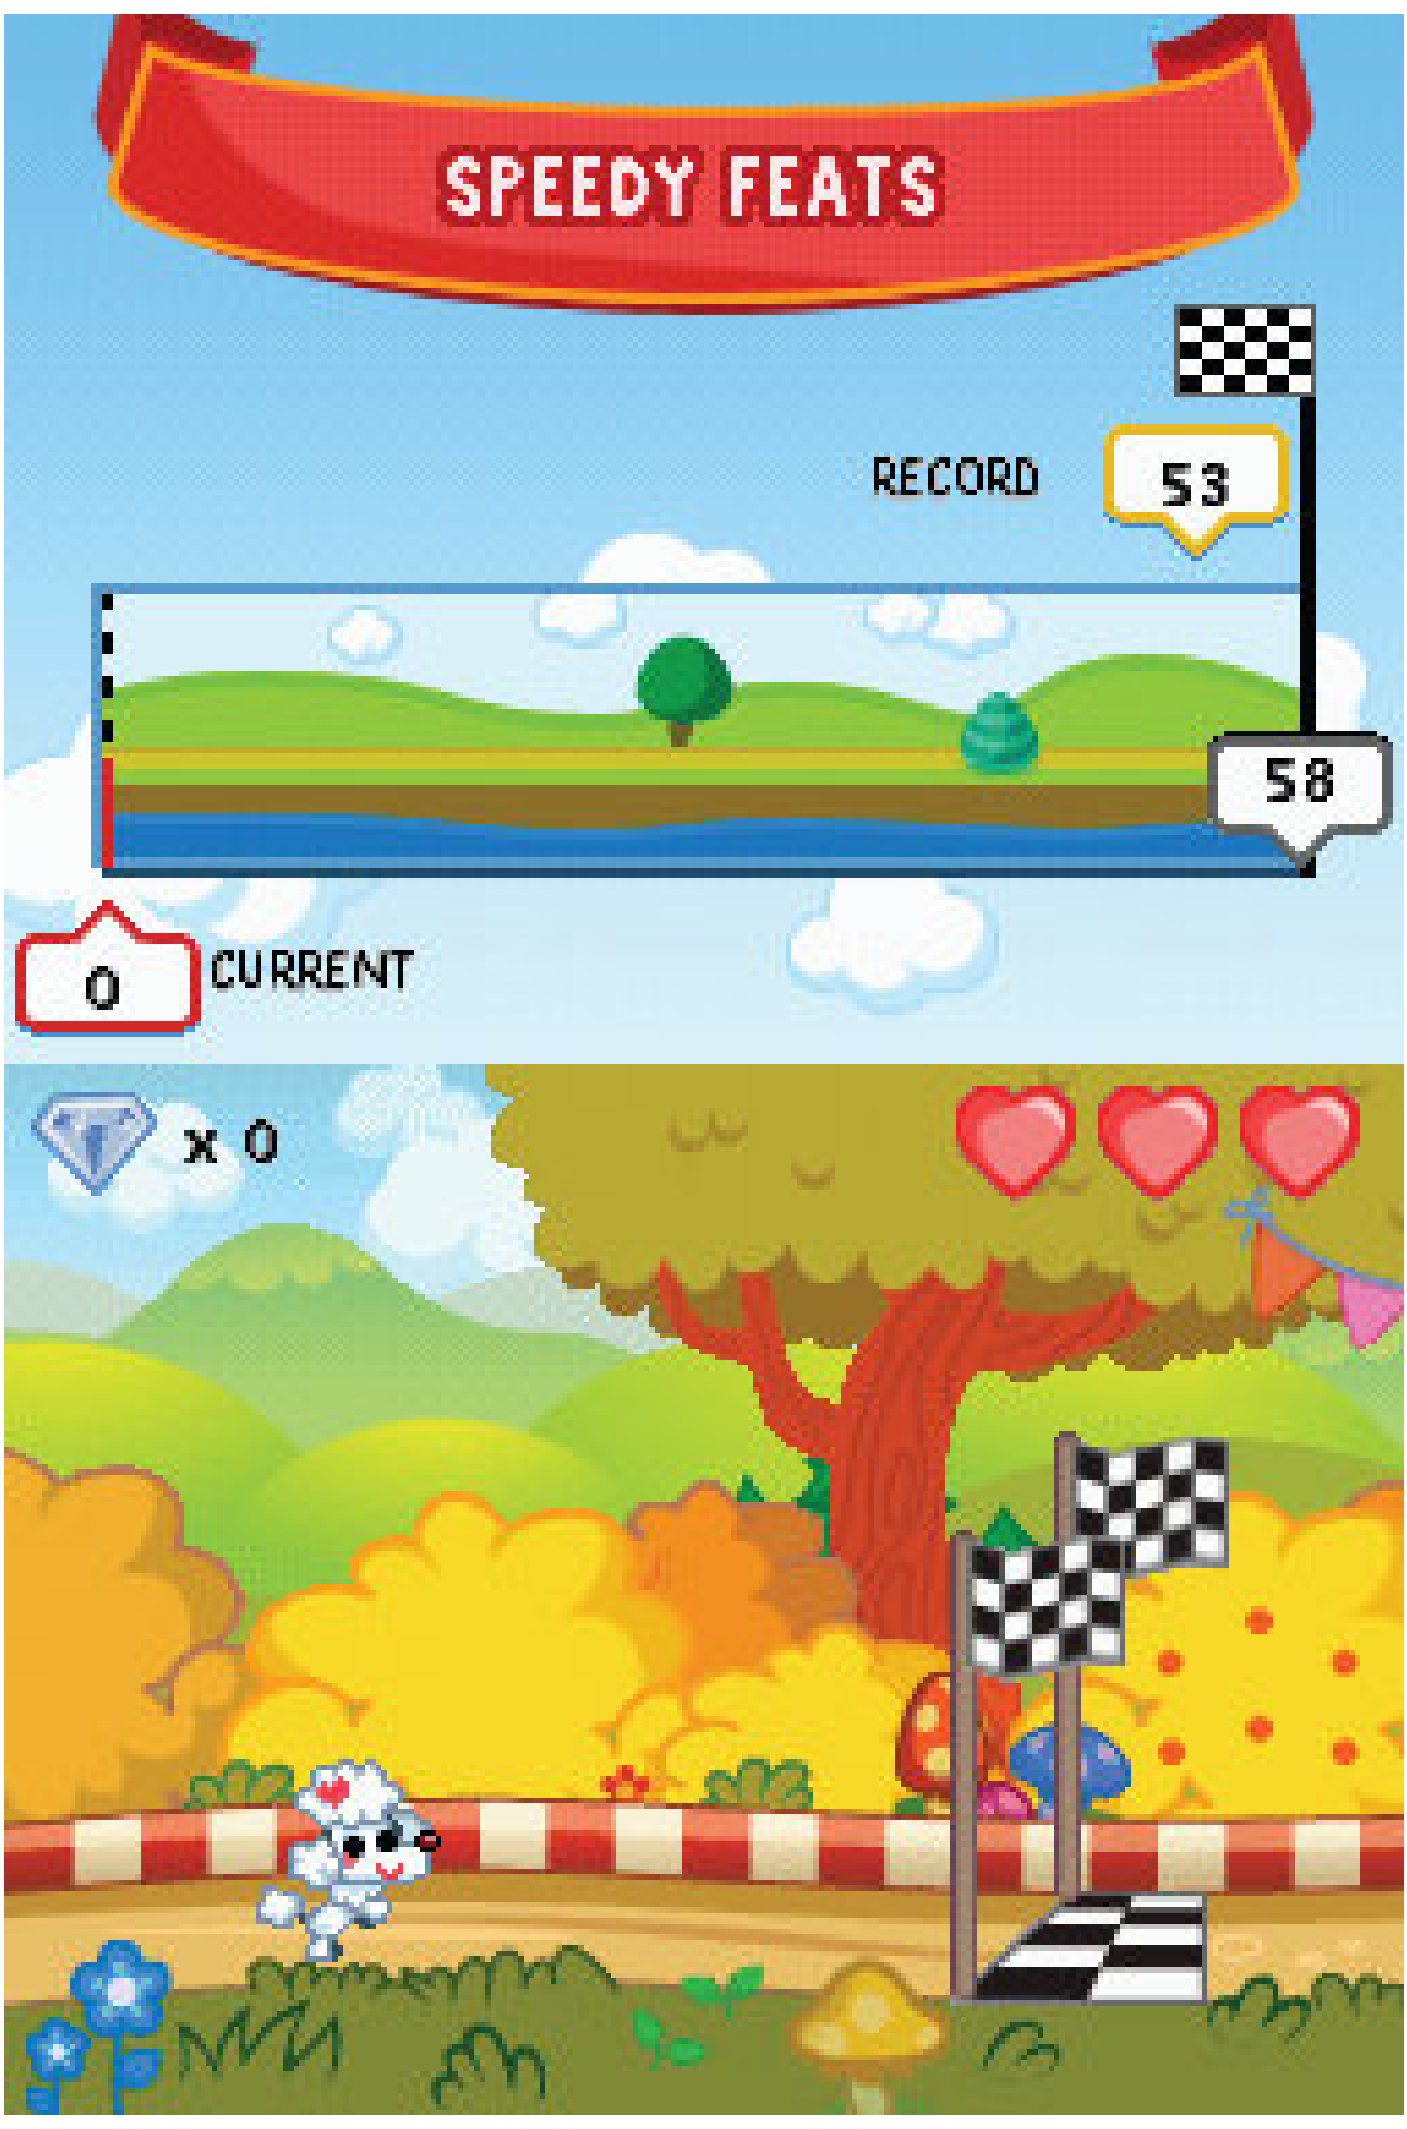


Mastering the Mini-Games

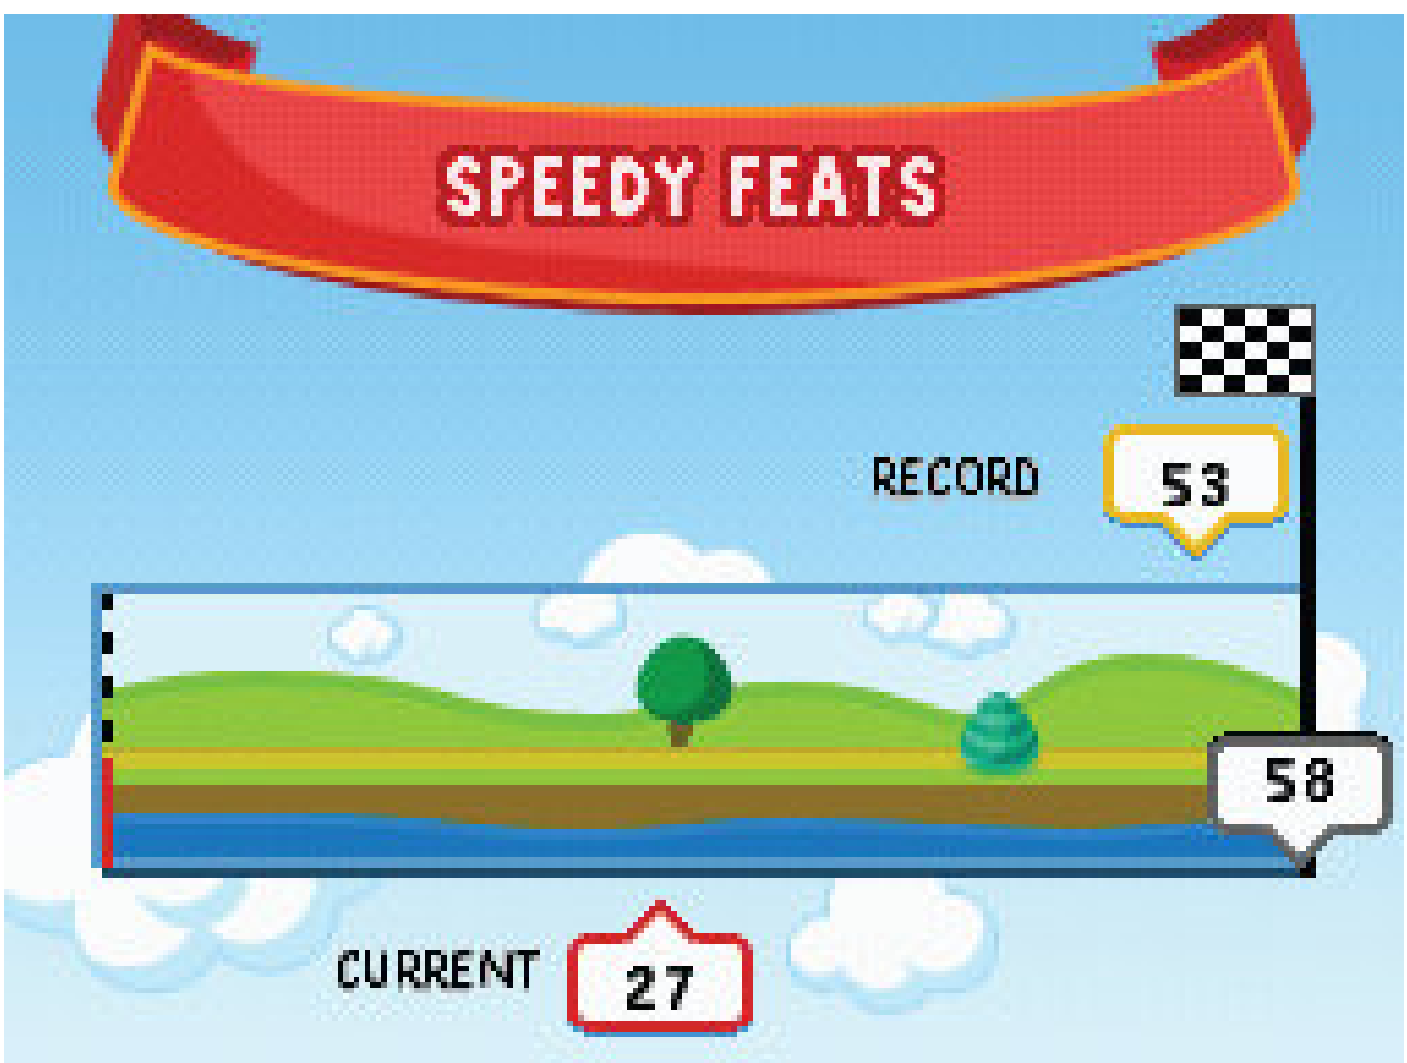
Speedy Feats

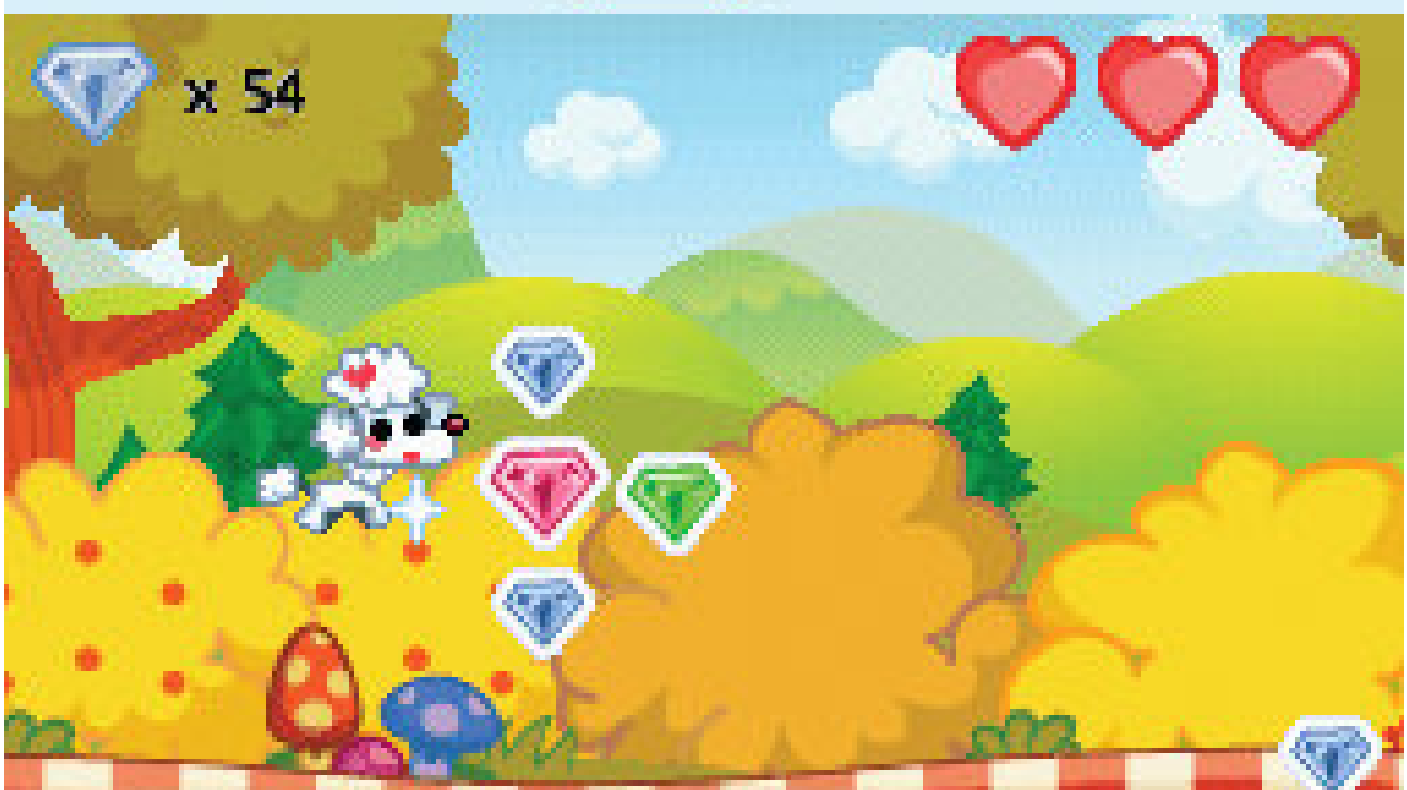
Choose your Moshling and get ready to race! Move your Moshlings by touching the screen, making them hop, swim, fly, or run for Rox. You'll not only collect loads of Rox, but you'll be training your chosen Moshling to prepare for the Ulti-Moshling Contest.

You can also make your Moshlings happy by racing and training. You don't have to feed them or wash them (sorry, Moshlings), but you must train them with races and Rapid Matches/Quik Wits to do well in the Ulti-Moshling Contest. As you level up your Moshlings, the races will become harder.

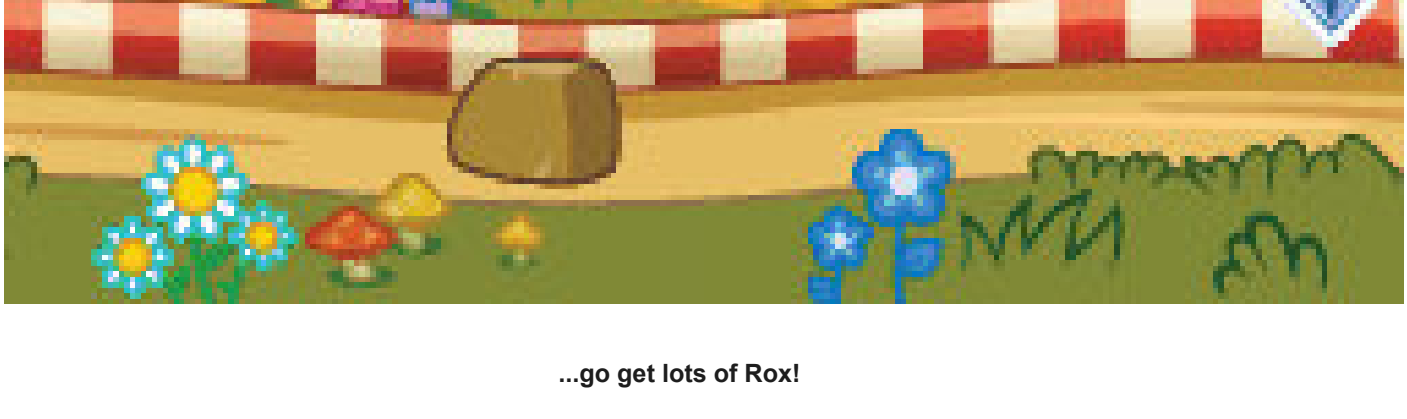


OK, Fifi...on your mark...get set...





...go get lots of Rox!



Moshlings race by land, sea, and air.

The races are huge Rox-grabbing opportunities. Try to get as many Rox as you can! In Speedy Feats, you're racing by yourself, so you don't have to worry about going super fast. (At least for now...you will be racing with other Moshlings in the Ulti-Moshling Contest races!)

The Rox in the game have the same values as in the Wooly Wilderness: a blue gem = 1 Rox, green = 3 Rox, pink = 5 Rox, and purple = 10 Rox. You can really rack up the Rox by playing Speedy Feats!

If you bump into an object, you'll be frozen for a few seconds, and unable to move. You'll also lose one of your three hearts, so be careful not to lose them all or your race is over. Sometimes, you might want to run into an object to nab some valuable Rox, even if it slows you down (as long as you have enough hearts!).

Mixed Machines and Quik Wits

Mixed Machines and Quik Wits

Mixed Machines and Quik Wits are two pairs of minigames that are each challenging mixed in your end screen. There are two ways to play them, and you can choose which one you want to play.

Just as in the Mixed Machines and Quik Wits minigames, you can choose to play the Mixed Machines minigame or the Quik Wits minigame.

Mixed Machines and Quik Wits are two pairs of minigames that are each challenging mixed in your end screen. There are two ways to play them, and you can choose which one you want to play.

Prof. Purplex's Mixed Machines minigame is a combination of the Rapid Matches minigame and the Mixed Machines minigame.

Quik Wits is a combination of the Secret Sequence minigame and the Shrinky Shapes minigame.

Each Mixed Machines and Quik Wits end screen will automatically record your best scores. Each minigame has its own score and record. The score is the number of points you earned in that minigame. The record is the highest score you've ever earned in that minigame. The total is the sum of the score and the record bonus. The record bonus is the number of points you earned in that minigame that is higher than your record.
